AIRPLANE BANDITS TAKEN AT TORONTO FOR BANK ROBBERY

Youthful Thieves Admit Stealing Plane, Holding Up Institution at Pontiac, Mich., and Flying to Canada in Effort to Escape Capture—Were Entraining for Montreal

Studied Aviation Three Weeks Before Taking Daring Chance

TORONTO, May 22 (CP).—A youthful bandit who studied aviation for three weeks in preparation, police say, for the "perfect crime," had his wings clipped here tonight. With his companion he is now in a local cell awaiting extradition for a bank robbery at Pontiac, Mich. Louis Kish, twenty-one, Detroit, is the short-time aviator, and Adam Morgan, twenty, Pontiac, his companion.

When the two were changing trains for Montreal, here, detectives took them into custody, and $12,863 they admitted stealing from the bank was recovered. Their statement to the police was decidedly of the "dime novel" variety, and one of the weirdest and most daring local officials had ever heard.

KIDNAPPED CAR OWNER

On Thursday, May 21, they stole a light motor car in Detroit, they said. As they were starting the motor of the car, the owner came out of his residence. They promptly dragged him into the automobile, drove ten miles out, and then gave the owner two dollars to return to his home. They drove the car to Pontiac, and parked it in a vacant field on the outskirts of the city. Then they went back to Detroit by autobus.

In Detroit the pair went to an aviation field where Kish had been learning to fly. They stole an airplane, two five-gallon cans of gasoline, and early in the morning of Friday flew the ship back to the field at Pontiac, where they had parked the automobile. They had a key to fit the door of the Pontiac Commercial Savings Bank & Trust Company branch at Lawrence and South Saginaw Streets.

LAY IN WAITING

Before the bank employees came into the bank that morning, the two thugs had entered the bank and lay in waiting. Six of the bank's employees were imprisoned in a vault as Kish held a gun on them. Morgan picked up one of the bank's currency sacks and crammed it full of money. Among the money were many silver dollars, and the bag was extremely heavy.

The two rushed for the car and

EX-INSPECTOR WINS HIS CASE

Succeeds After Lengthy Struggle Against What He Terms "Grave Injustice"

LONDON, May 22 (CP).—After a struggle of twenty-two years against what he terms a grave injustice against himself, Ex-Inspector Syme, of the Metropolitan Police, has won his case. He battled through the terms of four chief commissioners at Scotland Yard and eight Home Secretaries.

Twenty-two years ago Syme supported two constables who were accused of having committed a wrongful arrest. Consequently Inspector Syme was removed to other duties, without loss of pay or rank. His continued resistance caused an inquiry in camera before a commission of three judges who, while deciding against him, stated he presented his case with perfect propriety and temper.

DISMISSED FROM FORCE

He was dismissed when he threatened to take his case to Parliament.

Syme still pursued the matter. Eventually he began to break windows in Downing Street, and when he was jailed he went on a hunger strike. For twenty-two years he has fought his battle.

Now he has received a pension of $360 annually and a payment of $6,000 on account of arrears.

HEARTLESS OFFICIALDOM

"My life has been sacrificed to heartless officialdom," said Syme today. "Altogether I have spent more than three years in prison and six months in a criminal lunatic asylum for acts which were the only way whereby I could attract attention to my case.

"Now my reputation has been cleared by the Home Office. My friends are anxious for me to stand for Parliament as a Laborite. Perhaps I shall."

Labor members of the House of Commons who took up Syme's case recently, are initiating arrangements for a public testimonial to him.

Four Miners Buried Under Fall of Rock

SHENANDOAH, Pa., May 22 (AP).—Four miners were killed today in a fall of coal and rock at the William Penn colliery of the Susquehanna Collieries Company. A fifth man was seriously injured.

The five men were members of the night shift just reporting for work. As they rode in a mine car to No. 2 drift, the fall came, burying them under tons of debris. The fall occurred about 1,000 feet underground.

REDUCTION IN SEATS URGED

Ward Five Conservatives Endorse Proposal for Cut in Number of Ridings

SPEAKER DESCRIBES SAVING TO PROVINCE

Reduction from forty-eight to twenty in the number of seats in the Provincial Legislature by a gradual process that would ultimately save between $50,000 and $75,000 annually in sessional costs was unanimously recommended by Ward Five Conservative Association last night, on motion by W. C. Winkel, its chairman.

Mr. Winkel, stating his personal views, gave seven reasons for the suggested reduction in provincial representation in the Legislature. Forty-eight members were not required to run the business of 600,000 people, he averred. The entire directorate of the Canadian Pacific Railway, with interests stretching around the globe, was less than half that number. Cities such as Victoria and Vancouver did not require duplicate memberships to the extent they now enjoy, and in years of economic depression there was little excuse for so large a House, Mr. Winkle stated.

"It is a fair estimate to say that it cost $20,000 this year to pass the Speech from the Throne. In that debate every member of the House

Minister of Railways, said in the House of Commons last night it was his opinion the Canadian National Railways should not continue to enjoy its power to switch moneys earmarked for a particular work to some other work.

Labor Wins Rutherglen By-Election

RUTHERGLEN, Lanarkshire, May 22 (CP).—Labor retained the Rutherglen seat in the House of Commons, but with a greatly reduced majority, in yesterday's by-election. The result was announced today as follows: David Hardie, Labor, 16,736; Captain Moss, Conservative, 15,853.

The by-election was necessitated by the death of William Wright, Labor member of the House. He had captured the devision from the Conservative party in 1922, and in the last general election, when the vote was: Wright, Labor, 17,538; A. P. Duffes, Conservative, 12,249; J. D. McDougall, Liberal, 2,945, and A. B. Moffat, Communist, 842.

The by-election was fought on strict party lines.

Froth Blowers' Order Disbands

LONDON, May 22 (CP).—The Ancient Order of Froth Blowers is no more. The world-famous organization of merry souls has decided to wind itself up voluntarily, according to a notice in The London Gazette. But behind them they leave their great anthem: "The More We Are Together, the Merrier We'll Be," and a fine record of charity.

Founded in 1924 by the late Sir Alfred Fripp, eminent surgeon, the Froth Blowers, in four years, raised more than $500,000 for children's charities. They endowed fifty hospital cots with $2,500 each, and gave $70,000 for the development of Boy Scout and Girl Guide troops in poor areas.

Compromise Reached By Wheat-Exporting Countries of World

Geneva Conference Approves Creation of Committee to Provide Means of Collaboration Between Nations to Pave Way to More Orderly Marketing

LONDON, May 22 (CP).—The wheat conference meets tomorrow for what is expected to be the final plenary session. Throughout today and well into the evening the main plans committete ploughed through draft reports. It finally reached an agreement on a scheme which provides for the creation of a continuing committee of conference of which the special function will be to provide means of collaboration between wheat exporting countries of the world.

When the committee rose tonight, the task was entrusted to Dr. W. A. Riddell, of the Canadian delegation, to prepare the final report and submit it to the plenary session tomorrow.

The report is a compromise between those who think it does not go far enough and those who think it goes too far, and would prefer what would have been little more than a new bureau of statistics. During today's discussions it is understood the Polish and Danubian countries pressed for the creation of a more rigid form of international organization. The United States was against acceptance of anything which might savor of any international commitment. The Argentine and Canada were also against quota limitations, which it was felt would have an adverse effect on marketing their crops.

The stop-gap between the Near-Eastern proposals on the one hand and the American viewpoint on the other was very wide. The aim of the committee's report is an endeavor to bridge the gap by providing means for collaboration. There was some suggestion tonight that the European countries may, when the conference assembles tomorrow, present some reservations. But so far they have accepted the draft.

TO RESTORE CONFIDENCE

It is proposed that the continuing committee have power to make recommendations, including, if conditions necessitate, a recommendation that the conference reassemble. It is a secretarial form of clearing house for information on wheat crops and markets. The central idea behind the committee, however, is an endeavor to restore market confidence by helping to eliminate uncertainties. Advocates of the scheme also hold that while avoiding rigid international control, it will, by collaboration, operate against the menace of sudden dumping and stimulate more orderly marketing.

BRANCH LINE TO BE CONSTRUCTED

House Approves Bill Authorizing Building of Branch in Okanagan

OTTAWA, May 22. — Third reading was given in the House of Commons tonight to a bill authorizing the Kettle Valley Railway Company to construct a line of railway on the Osoyoos subdivision of its road in British Columbia.

Seeking an explanation of its purpose, A. W. Neill (Ind., Comox-Alberni) declared that extensions of time had apparently been granted to this company sixteen times in the last thirty years.

This was scarcely correct, declared Grote Stirling (Cons., Yale), who sponsored the measure. There had been only three extensions.

The bill would authorize the construction of a line eight miles long on the west side of Skaha Lake. The Kettle Valley Railway was interrupted by this lake, and traffic had been carried across it by scow since 1913. Increased business, particularly in the southern section of the valley, made the construction of this road necessary.

The bill was carried in committee of the whole, and then given third reading.

LONDON, May 22 (CP).—The House of Commons today adjourned for the Whitsuntide holidays, to reassemble on June 2.

THOUSANDS MASSING IN SOUTH CHINA

Rebel Forces Prepare for March—Big Gov't Army Being Mobilized

CENSORSHIP PLACED ON PRESS DISPATCHES

Mystery Surrounds Stand Taken by Minister of Railways on Dispute

SHANGHAI, May 22 (AP).—while bandit and Red armies ravaged Central China provinces today, the Government clamped on a censorship of press dispatches that veiled movements of rebellious troops about Kwangtung and Kwangsi and of loyal forces mobilized to combat them.

Prior to the censorship it had been reported that 100,000 soldiers were concentrating in Kwangtung and Kwangsi for a northward march against the Nationalist Government at Nanking. A Government force of 250,000,000 men had been reported mobilizing to check the rebellion.

AWAIT DECISION

Whether Kwangtung and Kwangsi Provinces would throw their forces into the rebellion or remain loyal to the central Government appeared to await the action of Sun Fo, thirty-year-old Minister of Railways.

Sun Fo was en route to Canton from Shanghai. He is the son of Sun Yat-Sen, founder of the Chinese Republic, and some reports said he would associate himself with the rebellion against Chiang Kai-Shek, chairman of the Nationalist Government and his father's protege.

MAY BEAR COMPROMISE

Other reports, however, said the revolt against Chiang had been postponed in the hope that Sun Fo was the bearer of a compromise proposal from the Government head.

Bandits and Reds continued their unchecked depredations, said reports from Honan and Hupeh. Three thousand bandits were reported hammering at the walls of Sungfow, in Hupeh Province.

CROWD CRIES VIVE BRIAND

French Foreign Minister Greeted With Wild Acclaim at Station in Paris

WILL URGE STATESMAN TO RETAIN PORTFOLIO

PARIS, May 22 (AP).—France's foreign minister, Aristide Briand, was welcomed with wildest enthusiasm by a solid mass of admirers of both sexes when his train arrived here tonight from Geneva, where he attended the pan-European commission.

It was with great difficulty he forced his way through the cheering multitude to a side door, where his automobile waited. He drove immediately to the foreign office.

Amid shouts of "Vive Briand," heard for blocks, the smiling Foreign Minister stepped from the train into the arms of four stalwart policemen, who sought by force to open a lane through the crowd.

One delegation of women representing a score of organizations, who had come to urge the Foreign Minister to remain in office and continue his crusade for world peace, were unable to make themselves heard. They could only thrust several large bouquets into his hands before they were swept aside by others seeking to welcome the minister.

Other officials, including President Doumergue, President-elect Doumer and Premier Laval, are expected to press Briand to retain his portfolio and to withdraw his resignation as a "patriotic duty."

Senate Will Consider Tuesday Proposal to Legalize Sweepstakes

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP).—Consideration of a bill to legalize hospital sweepstakes in Canada will be given next Tuesday by the Senate, Sponsored by Senator G. H. Barnard, of Victoria, B.C., the bill already has received two readings and passed by a special Senate committee. Debate on its principle and details will be held next Tuesday and, if it is passed, the bill will go to the House of Commons for its consideration.

Hundreds Are Killed in Insurrection in Burma

SIMLA, India, May 22 (AP).—Nearly five hundred people are reported to have been killed and a thousand wounded or captured in the current insurrection in Burma against British authority.

Missionaries returning here say the rebellion is in danger of spreading from Southern Burma, its starting point, throughout the country, and that colonial officials are rushing fresh troops from India into the upper section.

Business is nearing a standstill, and rice, the national staple, is selling at half its normal price. The interior was described as unsafe for foreigners.

Special Buses for Visitors at Opening Of Solarium Unit

THE board of directors of the Queen Alexandra Solarium extends to donors and friends a cordial invitation to attend the official opening of the new unit of the institution, to be held this afternoon at Mill Bay, commencing at 2:30 o'clock. Although a generous invitation is extended to Victoria and district citizens, it has been necessary to limit the age of children visitors to sixteen years and over.

At 1:15 o'clock this afternoon special buses of the Vancouver Island Coach Lines will leave the bus depot and will arrive at the Solarium in plenty of time for the ceremony.

DEATH TAKES "SOLLY" JOEL

World's Diamond King and Famous Sportsman Succumbs at Newmarket

HAD SPECTACULAR CAREER ON TURF

NEWMARKET, Eng., May 22 (AP).—"Solly" Joel, one of the most colorful figures on the British turf and in finance, died today.

He was born Solomon Barneto Joel, sixty-five years ago, but to half the population of Great Britain he was known as "Solly"—the diamond millionaire whose wealth and lavish expenditures dazzled London and international society at the begining of the century.

NOTED RACEHORSE OWNER

His fame as a racehorse owner and sportsman equaled that of his finance fame.

Many of his contemporaries in the South African diamond mining industry gathered great wealth there, but Joel's fortune once was estimated as high as £20,000,000. He started life as the child of a poor family in the London slums. Those who knew him described him as an indomitable worker devoted to business.

WON THREE CLASSICS

His silks were seen in almost every race of importance for years. His Humorist won the Derby in 1921. His big year was 1915 when his colt, Pommern, swept three British turf classics—the 2,000 Guineas, the Derby and the St. Leger.

In the 1880's he went with his uncle, B. J. Barneto, to the diamond fields. Through a spectacular struggle with Cecil Rhodes for supremacy in the industry, he emerged as the world's undisputed diamond king, when the two elder men died shortly after combining their interests.

APPEARANCE IS ENTERED

VANCOUVER, May 22 (CP).—On behalf of Chief of Police William J. Bingham, an appearance was entered today to a Supreme Court writ issued at the suit of Henry Burgess, police commissioner, who claims damages for alleged libel.

PREMIER TOLMIE ARRIVES TODAY

Chief Executive of Province Has Busy Programme Awaitng His Return

Premier Tolmie will arrive in Victoria this afternoon on his return from Ottawa, where he has been representing the Province in discussions with the Federal Government on a number of important issues. He will arrive in Vancouver this morning, where he will be met by a number of his Cabinet colleagues, prior to taking the boat for Victoria.

With a brief forty-eight-hour respite after his journey, the Premier will plunge back again into the duties of his office, as well as making arrangements to take part in a number of public engagements early next week.

On Tuesday the Premier is to attend a luncheon of the British Columbia Jersey Breeders' Association at the Experimental Farm, Bazan Bay. On Wednesday he will open the new veterans unit of the Essondale Mental Hospital; and on Thursday he will address the graduating class of nurses at the Royal Provincial Jubilee Hospital.

The balance of the week has been kept free, so that the Premier may have an opportunity of catching up with a heavy pile of correspondence awaiting him at his office. Sveral important Cabinet meetings are to be held in the course of the next few days, it is expected. Acting Premier Pooley left last night for Vancouver.

Rowboat Pirate Robs Attendant Of Oil Company

VANCOUVER, May 22 (CP).—A "rowboat pirate" made his appearance on Coal Harbor here last night.

Rowing to the Imperial Oil Company's service scow, he boarded the craft, and at gunpoint made Jack Dunphy, attendant, reveal the hiding place of his money, and put off again with $51 in cash.

Dunphy was left tied up hand and foot, and was not freed until his shouts attracted help from a nearby boat.

SOLARIUM UNIT WILL BE OPENED

Shrine Members to Take Part in Ceremonies at Mill Bay Institution Today

The formal opening of the new $35,000 addition to the Queen Alexandra Solarium at Mill Bay, will take place this afternoon at 2:30, when members of the Anaient and Accepted Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, who are responsible for the new unit of the Crippled Children's Hospital, will officiate at the ceremonies. The following programme has been arranged by Director J. M. Miller of the Gizeh Temple Band: Hymn of Praise, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow"; invocation, Rev. Major Barton; opening ceremony, Dr. Emery C. Jones, illustrious potentate, Gizeh Temple; address, W. B Lanigan, president Queen Alexandra Solarium; music, Gizeh Temple Band.

Minister of Railways Voices Objection to Powers Extended to Company

OFFICIAL OPPOSITION GIVES FULL SUPPORT

Members Agree Appeals to Cabinet Council Should Be Abolished

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP).—Government and official Opposition appeared to be of one mind in the House tonight that the Canadian National Railways must not switch moneys voted by Parliament to any undertaking other than that for which the appropriation is earmarked.

This was indicated by Rt. Hon Mackenzie King, leader of the Opposition, who declared it to be "entirely wrong" that the railway should have power to divert the appropriations. Such a power was not enjoyed by any department of government. This followed suggestions along similar lines by Hon. R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals, earlier in the evening.

WOULD ABOLISH APPEALS

Another important development in the debate on railway matters arose out of a statement by Hon. Charles Stewart, former Minister of Interior, with respect to appeals from the Board of Railway Commissioners to the Cabinet Council. He felt that these should be abolished and that the Board of Railway Commissioners should be the final court of jurisdiction, or else appeals should be taken only to the Supreme Court of Canada. Dr. Manion agreed with Mr. Stewart.

The House of Commons, in committee of supply, spent most of both afternoon and evening struggling

Doukhobor Fights Have Cost Colony Quarter of Million

Peter Veregin Places the Loss Near $250,000 After Two Years of Burnings, Pillage, and Rioting by Fanatics

DISORDERS in the civil state come high! Incendiarism and acts of sabotage in the Doukhobor areas of British Columbia, attributed to the Christian Community of the Universal Brotherhood to the Sons of Freedom, cost nearly $250,000 in the last two years, Peter Veregin informed Acting Premier Pooley this week through Assistant Commissioner W. R. Dunwoody, who acted for the Province at the recent Nelson conference. The sum includes the cost of schools burned, rebuilt and burned again, and other acts of destruction for which the Community Doukhobors have had to pay.

The same troubles cost the people of British Columbia a good round sum by way of costs of quelling the riotings in the Doukhobor settlements, and on one occasion the wholesale removal of Sons of Freedom to jail after a nude parade. It was this factor which led to a sharp ultimatum from the Province to the Doukhobors recently, an act which brought about the Nelson conference, and led to the offer of Veregin to turn over Crestova to the Sons of Freedom if they would abide there in peace.

"We are now waiting for Veregin to go ahead with his plan by the evacuation of Crestova to see if the Sons of Freedom will go there," Attorney-General Pooley stated.

Assistant Commissioner Dunwoody made a full report to Col. J. H. McMullin, head of the Provincial Police, and Mr. Pooley yesterday, on his return from the Doukhobor villages. The Government will await the next move by the colonists to see what the practical outcome of the peace parley may be.

CONFIDENCE IN FUTURE SHOWN

Statistics Reveal Marked Improvement in Building and Industry

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP).—Growing confidence in industrial financial circles that the economic trend in Canada is on the upgrade is reflected to a certain extent in Canadian Government statistics issued during the past week.

While the basic industry of iron and steel in March showed slight decrease in production from the preceding month, an increased demand was reported for structural steel for bridge building and for iron for the railway rolling stock industry.

AUTO MARKETING

Production of automobiles showed a decided increase in April and, for the first time since last June, financing of new automobiles exceeded that of used cars.

The aggregate value of building permits issued in Canadian cities showed an increase of 40 per cent over March, and the number of bankruptcies reported in March and the amount of liabilities involved were considerably lower than in the preceding month or in the corresponding month of last year.

NEW HIGH FOR YEAR

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics' monthly report on the iron and steel industry for April showed that the production of ferro-alloys was at its highest level for the year to date.

The automobile industry reported a production increase of 37 per cent in April.

The aggregate value of building permits issued in Canadian cities during April amounted to $13,786,466, an increase of 39.2 per cent over the preceding month.

Two Children Are Burned to Death

WHITBY, Ont., May 22 (CP).—Peggy Gallogley, three, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Gallogley, and Ruth Pinder, five, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pinder, both of this town, were burned to death in a barn at the rear of the Gallogley home, Maitland Street, shortly before noon today.

The children were playing in the loft of the barn when the fire broke out. Efforts to rescue the two children were impossible. Origin of the blaze is unknown.

ROYAL SOCIETY NAMES OFFICERS

Sir Robert Falconer Succeeds Dr. Charles Camsell in Presidency

TORONTO, May 22 (CP).—In the closing session of the fiftieth annual meeting here today, the Royal Society of Canada elected Sir Robert Falconer, K.C.M.G., as its president for the ensuing year.

Sir Robert succeeds Dr. Charles Camsell, deputy minister of mines for the Dominion, and he will be assisted by the new vice-president, Professor F. E. Lloyd, of McGill University. Sir Robert intends to retire from the presidency of the University of Toronto in 1932 after twenty-five years of service.

Other officers of the society elected were: J. L. Burpee, Ottawa, secretary; Dr. G. A. Young, geological survey, Ottawa, treasurer, and Dr. J. T. Patterson, Toronto, editor.

AMENDMENTS URGED

A resolution urging the Dominion Government to amend the copyright laws so as to conform with the Berne Convention and "protect the author's right to the product of his brain," was passed without a dissenting voice.

Geologists of the United States and Canada should take steps to standardize geological terms, was the recommendation of the geology section of the Royal Society.

The suggestion, introduced by Dr. R. C. Wallace, president of the University of Alberta, is designed to do away with the confusion of names for minerals.

Gandhi Says He Will Not Go to Parley

SIMLA, India, May 22 (AP).—Arrangements for the Federal structures committee meeting in London on June 29, preceding the Indian Round-Table Conference were upset today by Mahatma Gandhi, Nationalist leader, who said he could not attend on that date.

Gandhi notified Viceroy the Earl of Willingdon that he had not receded from his original intention to remain in India until the Hindu-Moslem communal problem is solved, and all of the Government's obligations under the Delhi pact are fulfilled.

Elaborating on his stand by long distance telephone from Maintial tonight, the Mahatma said it would be futile for him to go to London while these two major matters were pending.

Unidentified Robber Is Shot and Killed

LOS ANGELES, May 22 (AP).—An unidentified robber was shot and instantly killed by Detective-Lieutenant Charles Corliss at 1:15 a.m., today, in an attempted robbery of a cafe, here. The detective entered to find the outlaw, about thirty years old, covering three victims with a pistol. The man whirled and fired at the detective, who shot three times, all the bullets taking effect.

Religious Freedom For All Creeds in Spain Is Decreed

Provisional Government Takes First Important Step in Its Avowed Programme to Separate Church and State—New Law Says All Faiths Equal in the Official Eye

Sale of Art and Literature Limited

By GEORGE M. JOHNSON
(Copyright, 1931, by the Associated Press)

MADRID, May 22.—The Spanish Provisional Government took what is generally regarded as the first important step in its avowed programme to separate the church an the state, when the Cabinet tonight decreed absolute religious freedom of worship for all creeds in Spain.

Although the measure does not yet actually mean separation, since there is a signed concordat between Madrid and Vatican City which must be terminated by mutual agreement, the decree provides that the Government no longer professes the Catholic religion as official. This is regarded as highly significant.

UNDER NEW MEASURE

Under the new measure, which was submitted by Minister of Justice Delos Rios, who has charge of the religious question, all religious creeds are equal in the official eye.

Under the monarchy the Catholic religion was official and the only one permitted to practice its beliefs publicly. Formerly, all creeds could worship, but had to do so within their own temples and not publicly.

The new law says all creeds are equal before the Republican Government and they can worship in any way they see fit, provided they do not disturb public order.

Coincident with the religious freedom decree, the cabinet tonight also decided that public schools in the future will not be required to keep the Catholic religion.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

Children will receive religious instruction only when their parents demand it.

Another decree passed tonight limited the sale and disposition of objects of Spanish art and literature, many of which are owned by the Catholic Church. These objects now can be sold only with the permission of the Government.

Tonight's important decree comes upon the heels of widespread anti-church agitations during which much church property recently was burned in various sections of the country.

The disorders started twelve days ago when Monarchists and Republicans clashed in the streets of Madrid, and threats were made against the lives of some of the Monarchists.

ATTACKS AGAINST CHURCHES

During the next two days the riots spread to other cities and took the form of attacks against church property. Churches, monasteries and asylums were burned and looted.

Many monks and nuns sought refuge with their friends and some left the country. During the past few days the disorders had almost ceased and quiet was restored.

Last week the Government announced that moves would be made to hold the exiled King Alfonso and certain of his followers responsible for inciting the disorders.

Pope Pius recently described the burnings of religious houses as "sacriliges against God and holy religion." He added that there was a great responsibility on those who have caused these unhappy things.

CONFERS WITH PRESIDENT

Papal Nunciotedeschini had been conferring with President Alcala Zamora during the last few days, presumably over a protest from Vatican City in regard to the attacks against church property. There have been no official statements about these discussions.

Meanwhile, the newspaper La Vos in an editorial said there were reports from Vatican City that Luis de Zulueta, newly designated Spanish ambassador to the Holy See, was persona non grata there.

C.N.R. MANAGEMENT STRONGLY CENSURED FOR DIVERTING FUNDS

with the estimates for railways and canals. When the House rose at 11 o'clock tonight all the items in these appropriations, totaling approximately $14,000,000, had been passed, with the exception of an item of $50,000 in connection with the St. Lawrence ship canal survey. This vote was allowed to stand for a general discussion.

BIG SUM SWITCHED

Method by which monies for the Canadian National Railways are voted was explained by Dr. Manion. The railway management asks for a lump sum for certain work; a list of the work is submitted to the Government. However, the C.N.R. management now has authority, if it deems it advisable, to switch the money to any other purpose. Last year some $8,000,000 voted for extensions and betterments was used to pay interest charges instead.

The Minister of Railways had spoken rather freely, said Mr. Mackenzie King, on the matter. It was fundamental that no minister could take for different undertakings monies that had been appropriated for others. The railways were simply a branch of the Government and should submit to the same control. He thought it was entirely wrong for the railways to switch votes.

Inasmuch as Parliament had not the same control over the C.N.R. that it had over the Government, it was all the greater reason why the House should be more exacting on the railways in connection with the use of their parliamentary appropriations. The minister should advise the railways management that this matter had been brought up in the House of Commons and also infrom the management that the House felt strongly on it.

SHOULD SUBMIT ESTIMATES

Mr. King read from a volume on "Parliamentary Grants," which set forth that money voted for one purpose could not legally be applied to any other purpose. The fact that Parliament exercised control over the C.N.R. through the agency of a committee was all the more reason why the railways should submit their estimates with as little delay as possible.

"I entirely agree with that viewpoint," declared Dr. Manion. Mr. King's suggestion that the minister discuss this matter with the management of the C.N.R. was carried out some time ago when he (Dr. Manion) spoke in regard to it with Sir Henry Thornton. "I was shocked at the amount of money that had been switched by the railways," he commented. "The present practice should be stopped."

"I have already put myself on record with Sir Henry Thornton in this respect," Dr. Manion said, "and I have his assurance that he will endeavor to get down as close to the estimates as possible."

PROMISES CO-OPERATION

Mr. King thanked the minister and assured him that he would get the co-operation of the Opposition.

It was at this juncture that Mr. Stewart raised his point.

The Cabinet was not the proper body to hear appeals from the Board of Railway Commissioners. It did not have time to give consideration to appeals, and usually these were referred back to the board, so that the effect of the practice was simply to cause delay. He suggested that the Government might give consideration to changing the appeals from the Cabinet to the Supreme Court, or abolish appeals altogether and make the Board of Railway Commissioners the court of final jurisdiction.

Dr. Manion expressed accord with this suggestion. The Cabinet was not a rate-making body, and had not the technical knowledge necessary to perform this function. It had never changed an order of the Board of Railway Commissioners. He presumed that the practice was a relic of the days when no Board of Railway Commissioners existed.

URGES CAUTION

Caution in the abolition of appeals to the Cabinet was counseled by Alfred Speakman (U.F.A., Red Deer) and J. L. Ilsley (Liberal, Hants-Kings). There were times when the question of rates was closely related with public policy, he contended.

The minister declared that any projected change would require an amendment to the Railway Act, and consequently there was plenty of time to consider all the ramifications of the problem.

Robert Gardiner, U.F.A. leader, urged that any money spent next year on unemployment should be expended on railway construction in the West rather than by way of direct relief. Dr. Manion said that, if conditions suggested by Mr. Gardiner might occur, he would bear the representations in mind.

Motorists Have Close Call When Auto Overturns

Four occupants of an automobile which overturned on Dallas Road, near Clover Point, at midnight last night, miraculously escaped serious injury. William Gund, 7 Maynard's Auto Camp, received bruises to his left leg; Clyde Gillis, 820 Cook Street; Howard H. Raynor, 7 Maynard's Auto Camp, and W. Bourne, 806 Cook Street, were uninjured. The car was badly damaged.

MOTORIST INJURED WHEN CARS CRASH

Everett McCague, 2808 Graham Street, sustained minor injuries in an automobile accident at the intersection of Bay and Douglas Streets, at 10:30 o'clock last night. He was taken to the police station in the police ambulance and, after being given first aid, was able to proceed to his home.

Police report of the accident states that a car being driven south on Douglas Street by Mr. McCague was in collision with an automobile proceeding west on Bay Street and driven by Harold Halton, 2421 Douglas Street. Both cars were damaged.

AIRPLANE BANDITS TAKEN AT TORONTO FOR BANK ROBBERY

decamped, hurrying still more when a curious pedestrian looked in and saw the bag full of money. At the field, they again climbed into the airplane and took off. Over Lake St. Clair they become lost in a fog and wandered around until almost out of gasoline. They landed at a small field near Leamington, Ont., but took off quickly when the field attendant, after they told him they were flying from Windsor, pointed to the United States registration marks on the airplane.

Five miles west of Chatham they landed in a farmer's field. When they told the farmer they were in a hurry to reach Chatham, he drove them to that city. Here they bought a new club bag and transferred the money from the bank sack. But in their hurry, they left several bills in the old bag, and this aroused suspicion.

The mistake led to their apprehension here tonight. They left the Chatham hotel where they had registered, and boarded a train, buying tickets for Montreal. Toronto is a junction point, and the Montreal train did not leave for fifteen minutes. As they crossed the tracks to board the waiting flyer, Toronto detectives took them into custody.

After examination, Kish and Morgan awaited extradition and will be returned to the United States for trial tomorrow.

REDUCTION IN SEATS URGED

had the right to speak, and many voiced views that had already been advanced by previous speakers. Reduction in the number of members would mean a saying of $50,000 alone in sessional indemnities and traveling expenses, and perhaps $75,000 all told, when everything else is figured in," said Mr. Winkle.

"Besides the monetary saving of $50,000 a year, there would be a greater centralization of responsibility on the part of private members; a vast saving in sessional time; greater efficiency in conducting the parliamentary affairs of the country; and greater unity and accord in the councils of the Government.

BETTER LEGISLATION

"There would also be fewer laws, and better legislation. At general elections there would be fewer candidates to confuse the public; and successful candidates would have greater responsibilities than pertains at present. There would be less tendency to argue, and a greater tendency to get things done," continued Mr. Winkle.

His plan, he added, was that when the redistribution bill came before the Legislature at its next session, following the taking of the Dominion census, a downward revision of the representation in the House should be accomplished. It might not be possible to cut this representation from forty-eight seats to twenty seats all at one time, but it should be possible to make a start in that direction, to be followed out gradually until the required minimum had been reached. Mr. Winkel's resolution found an immediate seconder, and was endorsed by the meeting. It read as follows:

TEXT OF RESOLUTION

"Having regard to the economic and efficient administration of the parliamentary process of the Province of British Columbia, and further being of the opinion that the present distribution of provincial ridings is altogether too numerous for present requirements, and further being of the opinion that Victoria and Vancouver cities are over-represented in the Legislature, this providing an excess representation to the needs of the country, and further, having in mind the fact that the Government of British Columbia will in the near future be bringing down a redistribution bill, therefore be it resolved, as follows:

"That this Ward Five of the Victoria Conservative Association place itself on record and recommends, through its central executive to the Provincial Government, and to the next Conservative convention, the desirability and urgent necessity of a downward revision in any redistribution scheme that may be contemplated, so as to provide a Legislature for the Province of British Columbia not to exceed twenty members in all; and further, that the central executive of the Conservative Association of the city of Victoria be requested to forward copies of this resolution to the various executive bodies of the Conservative party throughout the Province of British Columbia."

After a free and open discussion on all matters relative to the subject, the meeting passed a resolution favoring the summoning of a provincial convention of the party, if, in the opinion of the provincial executive of the association, such a course was deemed justified at this time.

WINS VOCAL COMPETITION

Vancouver Woman Captures Silver Cup—Victoria Singer Is Second

OTHER RESULTS OF MUSICAL FESTIVAL

VANCOUVER, May 22.—Mrs. Myrtle Thomson, of Vancouver, was awarded first place in the vocal competition for the silver championship cup at the British Columbia Musical Festival this evening. Mrs. Thomson succeeded Miss Isabella Crawford, of Victoria, as holder of the cup.

VICTORIAN IS SECOND

Tonight she compiled a rating of 91 marks, two ahead of her nearest competitor, Miss Grace Platt, of Victoria. George Keatley, Vancouver, was third with 88 marks, while Frank Spooner, of Victoria, was fourth with 85 marks.

In the junior piano contest, open to competitors who had gained medals and honors in other tests during the period of the festival, in classes 69 and 74, the winner was Peter McTavish, Vancouver, who took the Victoria Ladies' Musical Club Silver Cup. Pat Custance, of Vancouver, came next with a marking of 89, and Blanche Fry, also of this city, with 88 marks.

In class 58, folk song contest, competing for the Vancouver Burns Fellowship Gold Medal, there were five entries, the winner being Florence Emanuele, Vancouver, contralto, who took 86 marks for her interpretation of "Wandering Willie."

MEN'S VOCAL TEST

In class 59, vocal solo for men, Scottish folk songs, the test piece was "Oh, Mount and Go." There were nine entries competing for the Vancouver Burns Fellowship Gold Medal, which was awarded to A. Houston, of Vancouver.

In class 57, folk songs for soprano, competing for the presentation volume of Scottish songs presented by the Vancouver Scottish Society, the winner was Louise Stirk, of this city, who took a marking of 88. Rosamund Buchan, of Trail, came second with 87 marks, while Lorna Campbell and Marian Wishart tied with 85 marks each.

PROGRESS WITH SCOUT BUILDING

Expect to Have New Headquarters Ready in Next Few Weeks

Excellent progress in the building of the new headquarters of the Quadra Troop and Pack, Boy Scouts' Association, was reported at a special meeting of the executive committee held last evening at the residence of Robert Dunn, 3329 Quadra Street. There were present Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Waring, Miss Sherwood, Messrs. Crowhurst, Sherwood, Llewellyn and Dunn.

It is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy in the course of the next two or three weeks. Members of Toc H, who are undertaking the work voluntarily, are in regular attendance, and the structure is rapidly approaching completion.

Mrs. E. J. Humber, Mrs. Waring and others who conducted a rummage sale recently, were thanked for their successful efforts on behalf of the building fund.

Mrs. Coleman has undertaken to arrange for the holding of a home-cooking stall at the store of Spencers' Limited, on or about June 20, of which further details will be announced later.

Votes of thanks also were tendered Ernest Sexton, William Luney, Boss Johnson and Harry Danes for contributions of material and lumber.

SPENCES BRIDGE MAN KILLED BY EXPLOSION

ASHCROFT, May 22.—With his head and shoulder blown from his body, the remains of Alex Berg, middle aged and a native of Sweden, were taken from his cabin at Spences Bridge on Wednesday afternoon after an explosion of dynamite in the cabin.

Railwaymen, working about 400 feet away, heard the explosion and hurried to the scene, but had difficulty getting the body out owing to fire and the explosion of bullets in the cabin.

At first it was thought to be a case of suicide, but a coroner's jury found that death was caused "by a dynamite explosion through the careless handling of same."

MAYOR TAYLOR IS BACK FROM EAST

Vancouver's Chief Magistrate Greeted at Station on Return From Visit to Ottawa

VANCOUVER, May 22 (CP).—With the main objective of his Ottawa trip, the validation of Second Narrows Bridge, accomplished, Mayor Louis D. Taylor arrived back in Vancouver tonight, looking fit as ever and maintaining a tight-lipped silence on the outcome of the numerous other projects which took him to the capital.

"I have nothing to say just yet; my report will be made to council on Tuesday," his worship replied to questions concerning the result of his negotiations concerning Kitsilano Reserve, Burrard Street Bridge, unemployment and other things.

"It's great to be back in Vancouver among friends," his worship said amiliingly, as he replied to greetings from Acting Mayor G. C. Miller, Alderman E. W. Dean and other civic functionaries.

With his worship was City Solicitor J. B. Williams, who accompanied him to Ottawa as legal adviser.

PIONEER ROYAL CITY MAN DIES

Father of Brownie Peebles, Distinguished Operatic Singer, Succumbs

NEW WESTMINSTER, May 22 (CP).—Peter Peebles, pioneer resident of New Westminster and father of Brownie Peebles, distinguished operatic singer, died early this morning in the Royal Columbian Hospital.

Mr. Peebles was born in Scotland seventy years ago and had resided in this city for nearly half a century. He came to Western Canada from England and worked in the early days on the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Until the big fire of 1898 wiped out this city, Mr. Peebles was engaged in the furniture business. He then entered the real estate and insurance business, in which he remained until 1912. Later he engaged in contracting.

Besides his widow, he leaves four daughters, Mrs. Alistair MacGregor, Vancouver; Mrs. Norman Oberg (Brownie Peebles), New York; Mrs. William Walker Brown, Snoqualmie, Wash.; and Mrs. John B. Mouat, New Westminster; and two sons, Peter Peebles, Oregon, and Prof. Allon Peebles, Washington, D.C.

Mr. Peebles had been ill in the hospital since March 27.

Seventeen-Year-Old Girl Faces Count of Killing Her Mother

ROCKLAND, Ont., May 22 (CP).—Lucia Goulet, comely seventeen-year-old domestic servant, will face trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction on a charge of murdering her mother, Mrs. Adelard Goulet, here on May 1. She was committed today to stand trial by Magistrate W. T. Erskine, who early this week conducted her preliminary hearing.

Mrs. Goulet, in her fifty-sixth year, was found dead in the humble Goulet home at East Rockland, of multiple wounds, apparently inflicted with a slender pair of embroidery scissors. It was at first believed she had committed suicide, but the case was reopened on the request of Lucia's elder sisters, and the seventeen-year-old daughter placed under arrest the day of her mother's funeral.

Lieut.-Col. Grant Morden to Retain Membership in British Commons

LIEUT.-COL. W. G. MORDEN

LONDON, May 22 (CP).—Lieut.-Colonel Walter Grant Morden, native of Prince Edward County, Ont., declared today he would continue to hold his seat in the House of Commons. The public examination in bankruptcy, which had been fixed for today, was adjourned until July 17, and Lieut.-Colonel Grant Morden is required to file a statement of his affairs within fourteen days.

Lieut.-Colonel Grant Morden told the Canadian Press he had wanted to resign his seat. He is a Conservative member for Brentford and Chiswick. "My health for a long time has not been good, and although I am better now, I must go slow," he said.

"But at the request of Conservative headquarters and the local executive I am continuing membership. My financial affairs will be straightened out in ample time to allow this," he declared.

As a result of the issuance of the receiving order, Lieut.-Colonel Grant Morden is incapable of sitting or voting in the House or in committee until the adjudication is annulled, or else he obtains from the court a certificate that bankruptcy was caused by misfortune without misconduct.

Jury Awards Woman $2,000 Damages for Injuries in Mishap

VANCOUVER, May 22 (CP).—For injuries sustained on December 18 last, when struck by an automobile on West Broadway, Miss Helen Maxine, aged thirty, cigar and candy stand saleswoman, residing in Stanley Park Manor, was awarded $2,000 damages by a Supreme Court jury against Victor Price, artisan, East Broadway.

Liability for the accident was admitted on behalf of Price, driver of the motor car, with his defence. The $2,000 was paid into court.

Mr. Justice Gregory, accordingly, after ordering judgment for $2,000 in favor of plaintiff, directed the defendant recover costs of the litigation from the time when the money was paid into court.

TO COMMEMORATE DEPARTURE DATE

Members of 88th Battalion Will Gather at Reunion at Chamber of Commerce Tonight

The fifteenth anniversary of the departure of the 88th Battalion for overseas' service will be celebrated by the members of the battalion by a reunion and banquet, which will be held in the Chamber of Commerce this evening commencing at 7:15 o'clock. It was on May 23, 1916, that the battalion left the Willows camp and marched to the C.P.R. wharf to board the Princess Victoria on the first leg of the journey overseas, and the history of the battalion will be told in song and story around the festive board. The reunion is confined entirely to the members who left with the battalion, with the single exception that the next of kin of any departed comrade is invited to attend.

The most impressive part of the programme will be the march to the Cenotaph, where a floral tribute will be placed in memory of the departed. Tickets may be obtained at Turner's barber shop, Campbell Building; Jones Bros.' service station, or any member of the committee. Those intending to attend are requested to secure their tickets or notify the committee in order that proper arrangements can be made for the banquet.

EDOUARD THOMAS DIES ON GALLOWS

Quebec Woodsman Is Hanged for Murder of Arthur Nantel, Restaurant Keeper

MONT LAURIER, Que., May 22 (CP).—Edouard Thomas, twenty-five-year-old Quebec woodsman, was hanged here today for the murder of Arthur Nantel, restaurant-keeper of l'Annonciation, Que., last September.

Nantel was shot in the back from ambush while on his way from his home to tend his stock. Thomas was arrested and charged with the murder together with the victim's wife. The Crown contended Nantel was killed through a conspiracy between Mrs. Nantel and Thomas. The accused were tried separately, the woman being acquitted.

Thomas was tried first on the question of his sanity. Found sane, he was brought before the local criminal assizes, and on January 11 was convicted and sentenced to death.

A petition was sent to the Minister of Justice asking clemency on behalf of Thomas, and his aged mother was aided by the Canadian Prisoners' Welfare Association in further representations to Ottawa, but the sentence was allowed to stand.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS NAME 1931 LEADERS

KAMLOOPS, May 22 (CP).—At the thirty-seventh convention of the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias in British Columbia, it was determined to continue support of the British Columbia musical festivals.

L. Chignell and A. J. Arnold, of Vancouver, have left on an unusual trip. On motorcycles they propose to travel from Vancouver to Bella Coola by way of the Cariboo Road, which they are following to Williams Lake. There they will turn westward over the bench lands of the Chilcotin, by the road leading through Alexis Creek and Redstone to Tatla Lake and Kleena.

From that point their route will touch the Hudson's Bay post at Anahim Lake, and thence by the old pack-horse trail to Atnarko, where there is a Government telegraph office. From Atnarko they will go to Stuie Lodge, a newly-established resort some forty miles from Bella Coola. From there the road is good through the Bella Coola Valley to the coast.

Their report to the provincial information bureau is that the Cariboo Highway is in excellent shape, and is easily traveled even on the light motorcycles which they are obliged to use on account of the difficulties of the pack-horse trails to be encountered later. They write enthusiastically of the highway as a travel route, and its attractions for the motorcyclist.

WEALTH OF FORMER SPANISH MONARCH IS PLACED AT $8,600,000

MADRID, May 22 (AP).—The Republican Government Thursday placed the wealth of former King Alfonso and the royal family in funds, bonds and investments in Spain and abroad at 86,000,000 pesetas (about $8,600,000).

Military officers who made the audit said, however, that only a rough estimate was possible, since definite figures were not available. Jewels in possession of members of the family were not included in the total, since it was impossible to determine their value.

SOUND AUCTION and CONTRACT

A Trickless Hand May Pass Partner's Original Two Bid

Auction Bidding

	1st Rd.
South	1 ♠
West	Pass
North	Pass
East	Pass

The original bid of two of a suit, even more than two No Trump, is a forcing bid and thus a demand upon partner to keep the bidding open, should he hold any trick-taking value whatsoever. Even should he be lacking in high cards, he should bid any five-card suit that he might have, for with the high values declared in partner's hand there might be a game in such suit. Or its mere presence as to length might enable partner to go game at No Trump, should such suit happen to be the weak suit in original hand.

However, when the partner of the original two bidder has a blank hand and no distributional values, I am firmly of the opinion that it is better for him to pass, for unless the requirements for an original bid of two are kept unreasonably high, there would indeed be little chance to go game. I consider it more important to have some elasticity to the original bid of two than to assure a response from partner on an arbitrary convention.

SALIENT POINTS OF THE BIDDING

Contract: South opens the bidding with two Spades. West passes and North, with an absolutely trickless hand, also passes. Naturally East passes and South plays the hand at two Spades.

Auction: South obtains the Contract for an opening bid of one Spade. Though the suit is not long, it is so strong as to tops that he does not particularly wish to invite a denial.

THE PLAY

West opens the two of Diamonds, North plays the four, East the Queen and South takes the trick with the Ace. Declarer immediately utilizes his only entry in Dummy (the Jack of Spades) in order to take the Heart finesse. There being but two Hearts in Dummy, South plays the Queen to the first lead and when it wins he plays the Ace of Hearts.

He then plays the two of Hearts from own hand and West plays the nine of Spades, shutting out North's ruff. West leads another Diamond, which East takes with the King, leading the six. This trick Declarer takes with the Queen of trumps, leading another Heart, which West trumps with the ten of Spades. Declarer must yet lose the Ace and King of Clubs which, together with the two Spades taken by East, holds him to two odd.

Pain Over Kidneys Was Soothed Away

A splendid recovery was made by Mr. A. S. Gray, of Elbros, Sask. He heard of a good kidney medicine and used it. "I started using Dr. Hamilton's Pills a few months ago and find them a great medicine for Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. After taking a few boxes of Dr. Hamilton's Pills the soreness in the region of my kidneys is nearly all gone. I am eating anything now, which I couldn't do before taking Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

These mild yet active pills contain vegetable restoratives, such as mandrake and butternut, and put new life into the liver and kidneys. They soothe away backache and make you feel brisk and full of "pep." Sold by all dealers. (Advt.)

CLEVER PLAY IS GIVEN BY CLUB

Fairfield Players' Club Acts "The Arrival of Kitty" Before Packed House

With such a cast of well chosen players performing that it would be difficult to single any out as being the best, the Fairfield Players' Club, under the direction of Mrs. Hugh Nixon, last night presented "The Arrival of Kitty," a three-act farce by Norman Lee Swartout, before a packed house at the Shrine Auditorium.

The presentation kept the audience in bursts of laughter throughout, and never once did the action slow down.

The scene for the three acts is laid in the Halycon House, a hotel in the Catskill Mountains, and the story deals with a young couple who are in love with each other but are unable to be joined in holy matrimony because of the will of the girl's father, which states that she must marry another within a year. The girl's uncle and aunt do their best to hold the girl to the will against her own will, and she is about ready to marry the man chosen for her when her true lover, who has been traveling far and wide seeking her, appears on the scene to stop the proceedings. The complications that arise from the wedding-to-be are varied and many, and do not allow the audience a moment's peace with their humorous situations. Later in the story it turns out that the uncle, who is supposed to be reserved and sedate, is also in love. His ideal is one of the most notorious stars on Broadway, and his sister-in-law, who is in charge of the money left in the will, has an aversion to such characters.

CLEVER MASQUERADING

To save himself and also his love, the young man, Bobbie Baxter, singularly well portrayed by Dennis Humphries, disguises himself as the movie actress in order that he may lower her in the estimation of all concerned. Again complications arise that provide many a humorous situation when the man who is supposed to marry the young girl, Jane, played excellently by Molly Johnston, gets intoxicated and makes love to Bobbie Baxter, disguised as the movie actress. The arrival of the real actress on the scene brings down the house with the uncle seeing so many movie actresses, as he supposes, that he believes himself going mad. The hotel keeper, however, who is an old friend of Bobbie's, and with Bobbie's assistance, manages to a certain extent to straighten things out, after which all ends happily.

WELL CHOSEN

The part of the aunt is taken convincingly by Eva Parlee. Her acting throughout was perfect, and it is doubtful if the part could have been better chosen. Jack Tyrer, as the hypocritical uncle, is also well cast, and shows himself as being quite at home on the stage. James Strang, as a colored boy; Douglas Nixon as the bellboy and make-believe owner of the hotel; Suzette, a maid; Benjamin More, the bridegroom chosen in the will, and Kitty, the real actress, all acted in first-class manner. Last, but by no means least, comes the part played by Dennis Humphries. Masquerading as the actress, his ladylike actions and the ease with which he carried himself brought comment from all.

NEW ORGANIZATION

The club, which was organized in January and has been practising since February, has been an outstanding success thus far, and its members, under Mrs. Nixon, are now contemplating another production within the near future.

Belgium has started a campaign for the improvement of the fruit crop.

ROBERT F. DRUMMOND DIES AT VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, May 22 (CP).—Death claimed another of Vancouver's pioneers early this morning, when Robert Fraser Drummond, aged seventy-seven, died in a city hospital. Deceased had been in ill health for the past three and a half years.

Born in Toronto, he came to Vancouver forty-seven years ago. He was well-known throughout British Columbia, having been in the railway mail service for many years. He was a member of Vancouver Pioneers' Association.

Subsidies paid by Great Britain to the beet sugar industry last year totaled $30,000,000.

EXTRATERRITORIAL RIGHTS

The Chinese Nationalist Government shows no signs of weakening in its determination to deprive foreigners of their extraterritorial privileges. That Government is, to quote the Shanghai correspondent of The London Times, "tearing up treaties which accord these privileges without leave of the Governments concerned." It is true there have been negotiations between the Chinese Nationalist administration and other Governments signatory to the treaties concerned. Mr. C. T. Wang, the Chinese Foreign Minister, now says the desired solution has not been reached with Great Britain and the United States. He has, therefore, issued the following regulations which are to come into effect on January 1, 1932:

The setting up of special courts in a number of places for the trial of criminal and civil cases in which foreigners are involved.

Outside the jurisdiction of these courts foreign defendants may petition to have their cases tried in special courts.

Advisers shall be attached to special courts who shall not necessarily be Chinese.

The advisers may submit written memoranda to the courts, outlining their opinion, but may not interfere with their judgments.

Arrest and search are to be carried out in accordance with the Chinese criminal code.

Foreigners arrested are to be handed over for trial within twenty-four hours.

Foreigners may be represented by foreign lawyers.

Violations of police regulations will be dealt with in the police courts, which are empowered to impose fines up to $15.

Great Britain's negotiations with the Nationalist Government of China on the subject of extraterritorial rights have been based on a definition of the safeguards which China would provide in its judicial and administrative system to protect foreign residents against any miscarriage of justice. Great Britain insists that Shanghai and the other three principal treaty ports, "must be outside the scope of the negotiations." The Chinese Government objects to such exemptions. It wants extraterritorial rights abolished throughout the length and breadth of the land, including the treaty ports. Thus China is going ahead in her determination, without the consent of the Powers with whom she has treaties. Those Powers are well within their rights, after recent experiences in China, in demanding that illustration should be given for the time being of the power of the Chinese Government to protect foreigners within the area of its regime.

IN SOVIET RUSSIA

The Saskatoon Star-Phoenix has published a letter received by Mr. Jacob Thiessen, of Mennon, Sask., from a friend of his at Taurida, Russia, in which the writer discloses some of the conditions workers suffer under the Soviet regime. The letter is a literal translation from the Russian and not wholly intelligible in parts, but the general sense leaves no misunderstanding of what the writer seeks to convey. We quote it in part:

"Yesterday it snowed and froze, so that it seems impossible to finish sowing in six days. The primary plan was to finish it in ten days, but since God was late in sending Spring weather, 'we,' in opposition to Him, are finishing in six days. Aren't we smart? Is it possible?—nobody asks that. The fact that our horses have had no corn (kernel) during Winter and that already some have to be raised by the tail right now—all that matters not. The plan is so—and has to be carried out to the letter—even if it is foolishness. Somebody will get the blame should the plan miscarry. Today the local seed board is blamed because no seeds are available. In Autumn when I was a member of that board, we tried to hinder an export of more wheat and barley. The result was 'for speaking in opposition to the people's will, fourteen months' prison for the chairman of the board.' Now the board gets the blame for not having seeds.

"If there are people in Canada that do not believe in the 'devil' and 'hell,' come over into Soviet Russia. Here you will see him and feel it, one thousand ways you will feel it. Are there any students of slavery in your 'new home?' come and study it here—we do not know any other but 'slavery' industry. Nobody is allowed to want anything (that is in reality, on the paper; statements, newspapers, etc., we want to do everything). 'When the Lord shall save the imprisoned in Russia, we'll like the dreaming.' Pray for us, so God might save us. How, matters not.

"In addition to all misery comes hunger. The prices for food products are enormous, and they are still climbing. In our provincial residence 36 pounds of flour (one pood), costs 60R ($30); wheat, 36 pounds, about $20; potatoes, $8 for 36 pounds; a bottle of sunflower seed oil costs $4. In the Crimea it often happens that hotels have no bread, not even for industrial workmen. We are forced to take food along while driving to town. Buy? You can't buy food in town. The city industry workmen receive a pound or a pound and a quarter of bread. On the 'Dnjeprostfoj,' a manufacturing plant on the Dnjiepre River, one member of each family is standing in turn to receive bread out of the common 'food hall.' Common kitchens are to be organized in the nearest future in all villages. In many villages there are already common 'bakeries,' but not in my home. Field kitchens are a common thing now.

"So far we (the family of the writer) have made a living, a bare living. Of my share for the year the Government has taken 95 per cent. Many, very many have lost all their food, all their clothes except those few rags they were wearing. They take it, sell it and drive the family into the world. Especially, they are after the preachers. Those that did not disappear in time are sent to prison. In your home of the past there is a 'chaos.' Your neighbor's house is a chicken barn at present. Mr. Thielman's house has been rebuilt into a pig pen. My barn and house are decreed to be changed in a similar manner. Enough now. The letter cannot be sent off today. I have first to make an envelope; you cannot buy any. Could you send me one every time you write a letter?"

RAGE AND GROW THIN

Scientists in convention at Montreal have enunciated a doctrine of how to keep the schoolgirl and schoolboy figure without the trouble of dieting. Their claim is that frequent exhibitions of rage and fear burn up fat to a remarkable degree. In other words, the person who is placid and serene will not be really fit. It has been demonstrated in the animal world that anger burns up fat. Experiments are now to be made with humans, and it is hoped, by the loss of weight, to demonstrate how angry a person is at a given moment. If the theory is true then it is obvious that men would live longer if there was more infuriation in their lives.

The new doctrine of how thinness may be achieved gives two emotions from which to chose. It is necessary to display either rage or fear. The result in either case is equally efficacious. It remains, however, to devise a way in which at regular intervals either of these emotions can be induced. That is the stumbling-block. A set of automatic irritants or frightening impulses must be devised if there is to be a regimen of such emotions as are recommended to take the place of a sparing diet. It is here that the psychologists should be able to step into the breach and show how mental complexes can be made ungovernable with the laudable purpose in view of always keeping fit.

An increased dependence on governments to set all human ills right and the overburdening taxation imposed in the attempts of authority to carry out the new social mandate is probably, as much as anything else, a cause of present-day world depression. Sir Ernest Benn is right when he says: "Let us give up this whining about world conditions, and recognize that we have a great deal to put right among ourselves. Let us do ourselves more credit as a people, as a nation. Let us do ourselves the justice to believe that we are not forty-five million mugwumps, who cannot move until Whitehall blows a whistle."

In the United States in the last three years 4,171,949,291 shares of stock were sold at an approximate price of $100 each. This is about enough, it would seem, to indicate the gambling spirit which maintains in one country, because, while a large proportion of the money went for investment purposes, there was a great enough percentage, also "invested," on the basis of the "get-rich-quick" idea. If the latter had not been the case the prices of various listed securities and stocks would be more healthy than they are today.

Punch's comment on Mr. Snowden's budget is, as usual, very much to the point. It depicts in a cartoon by L. Raven Hill, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, as a sandwich man bearing placards with the following inscriptions: "Pay more taxes"; "Fill more forms"; "Tear more hair"; "Gnash more teeth"; "Bite more dust." Nearby is a billboard with the advertisements: "Buy more Empire produce"; "Drink more milk"; "Eat more fish"; "Eat more fruit"; "Seek more sunshine.' The caption of the cartoon is "Our Little Snowbeam."

EXILE

Will you remember that when next you write me,
It is of little things I long to hear.
All the small happenings that you hold so lightly,
I hold so dear.

Are you still busy in your garden daily?
What are you doing now?
What do you sew?
And do you hum your little songs as gaily
As long ago?

Are the larks singing now at dawn's awaking,
In the green meadow where wild pansies grow
In clusters, free for any traveler's taking?
Tell me such things as these, my heart is breaking
Dear, just to know.

—Maud Stewart in The Canadian Bookman.

I believe freedom to be the first condition of moral life. It needs, however, to be accompanied by instruction. It is like money in this, that in order to profit by it one must know how to use it properly.—Julia Ward Howe.

The gentle mind by gentle deeds is known; for a man by nothing is so well betrayed as by his manners. —Edmund Spenser.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

The rank is but the guinea's stamp,
The man's the gowd for a' that.
—Burns.

Mr. J. D. McNiven, Provincial Deputy-Minister of Labor, is about to retire and rest from his labors. In accordance with custom and convention, newspaper commentators are printing nice things about the life and works of the retiring official. That is something which is always done. However critical the hon. gentlemen of the press may have been of the conduct of public men during the period of their service to the country or the community, they always say complimentary things about them when they retire or die. There is no probability of the latter dire contingency in the case of the retiring Deputy-Minister, we are thankful to state, and there is therefore good reason to hope that after a long perior of service to his fellowmen in the realm of labor he will live long to contemplate and enjoy the fruits of his industry.

* * *

We have known Mr. McNiven for many years, for many more years than it is altogether comforting to look back upon and contemplate. We first met him shortly after the late Mr. J. C. MacLagan, when editor and proprietor of the late Vancouver World, who had heard of his reputation as an artistic typographer, brought him from Winnipeg to fill an important position upon his newspaper. Printers in those days were all good fellows, but some of them were bad boys. Jim was always a good fellow, but he never was a bad boy. Mr. MacLagan, although he was a printer by trade himself, was always having trouble with his printers. He was of a generous but impetuous disposition, and not by any means slow to wrath. The natural consequence was that there were frequent exchanges of flowers of speech between the impetuous proprietor and the worst of the bad boys in the composing room, and the printers "went on strike." But the storms were always mere tempests in teapots. They blew over as fast as they had blown up, and master and men were as good friends as ever.

* * *

We have met a few newspaper proprietors who were proud of their papers, but never one who took so much pride in the typographical appearance of his paper as Mr. MacLagan. It was in order to maintain and increase, if possible, the typographical appearance of The World that Mr. McNiven was imported from Winnipeg. We are not sure how long the association of Mr. MacLagan and Mr. McNiven continued. It could not have been very long, but whether it was long or short, it could not have been severed as a result of any exchanges of flowers of speech, for we do not believe it possible that Mr. McNiven in the course of his life ever could "have had words" with anybody. If the impetuous MacLagan was a man hard to get along with, the constitutionally even-tempered and judicial-minded McNiven could get along with anybody.

* * *

But in this discourse we are not going to follow the conventional practice and say nothing but nice things about the retiring provincial official. Even the best of men are not free from faults if they are not afflicted with vices. So we have decided to tell the truth and shame the devils who follow the conventional practice and say nothing but pleasant things. We have heard it said of Mr. McNiven, then, that he took an unconscionable long time to cut his plug of tobacco and fill his pipe in the mornings before settling down to work. We have been told by those who know that when he held an even more important position in Ottawa than he is about to surrender in Victoria, and when circumstances compelled him to travel through the country a great deal, he was never known to wait a second at a station for a train—that he always arrived just in time to jump upon the platform of the last car as the train was pulling out of the station.

* * *

But none of these things were vices; they were not even faults; they were virtues which fitted him for the high positions he held; they were evidences of a diplomatic and judicial disposition, qualities of mind necessary for any man who was called upon to deal with highly controversial relations between employees and employers. There is a final fact confirmatory of the fitness of Mr. McNiven for the positions he filled so admirably at Ottawa and in Victoria. When in Ottawa he was associated with the department of which Mr. Mackenzie King (now known as the Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King) was the distinguished chief. We have had it on the highest and most direct authority that in those days the first chief of the Dominion Labor Department was not an easy man to get along with; that he was both arrogant and headstrong. We have heard Mr. McNiven give an indirect hint to that effect, but he never had a direct ill word to say of his chief, and we believe is loyal to his memory, a sentiment which he qualifies by explaining that the right Hon. gentleman's qualities have been mellowed by age. The conclusion we formed from this observation was that a man who could maintain agreeable relations with the present Leader of the Opposition could get along harmoniously with anybody.

Letters to the Editor

SWEEPSTAKES

Sir,—I observe that a number of gentlemen are writing letters in favor of legalizing sweepstakes for hospitals. Personally I feel that these gentlemen are wrong, as if hospitals cannot get sufficient voluntary support they have a good case to go to the Legislature for maintenance, hospital upkeep being equally important with (say) education or road-building. They have no case to go to gamblers for support, even if the gambling is of the mild kind known as sweepstakes.

Let us hope that our hospital authorities in Canada will take the same attitude as their fellows in England, where it has long been a source of pride that the hospitals are supported by voluntary contributions, but where there has recently been an agitation in the same direction. The chairman of Charing Cross Hospital has written a pamphlet against the idea of sweepstakes and their results being applied to hospital upkeep. He has received so much abuse that he has been obliged to write to The Times as follows: "I am not a 'bigot' nor a 'killjoy.' I don't think I am a 'humbug,' and certainly not a 'smug Pharisee'; possibly I am a 'Psalm-smiter,' because I do not know what that is, but I do feel that all these epithets and others applied to me are unmerited. As long as I hold the helm of this hospital, I shall refuse to touch one penny from this sweepstake nuisance into which the public is being stampeded."

Let us be true to principle, above all in national affairs. Black and white, when mixed together, do not produce white; they produce grey, sometimes a dirty black. So if you mix good and evil; you do not produce good. If you run sweepstakes for hospitals, you obtain tainted money. Do the hospitals want this tainted money? I hope not.

Mr. Mansfield remarks that the whole of life seems to him a gamble. Not at all. "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." If you sow religion, you reap it. If you sow art, you reap it; sow music, you reap it; sow study, and you reap knowledge. But if you sow any of the bad things, like frivolity or covetousness, what then? If you sow sin, you reap evil. And if you sow sweepstakes, you reap a gambling spirit in your fellow men. That is a rotten thing to do.

CHARLES BROUSSOU.
R.R. 4, Victoria, B.C., May 21, 1931.

SWEEPSTAKES

Sir,—Will the Rev. G. F. Cox, of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Victoria West, kindly explain to a bewildered public on what grounds he objects to sweepstakes, seeing that the winners are ordained of God according to Mr. Cox's own statement over his signature in your issue of today.

A. MacCORKINDALE.
20 Menzies Street, Victoria, B.C., May 21, 1931.

SWEEPSTAKES

Sir,—I am concerned over two aspects regarding the proposed measure to legalize sweepstakes. 1. Does legislation strengthen the will of the people to tell the truth and do right? 2. What is wrong with sweepstakes?

When Milton wrote his sonnet "On the Lord General Fairfax" he concludes with these words:

"For what can warr, but endless warr still breed,
Till truth and right from violence be freed,
And public faith cleard from the shamefull brand
Of public fraud. In vain doth valour bleed
While avarice and rapine share the land."

The ideal of true government is to "maintain justice and uphold the liberty of the subject." Can this ideal be maintained by legalizing any form of gambling?

Undoubtedly the war, 1914-1918, was caused by avarice. Betting on racing, fluttering in stocks, or tickets on lotteries and sweepstakes are unwise because they encourage avarice, and avarice perverts truth and right.

"Playing the Game" always appeals and brings out the best in our Canadians, without legal penalties.

WILLIAM BARTON.

CIVIC SERVICE BY-LAW

Sir,—Your editorial should be sufficient to explain the action of the council, but may I be allowed to explain my actions on the question.

In fairness to the two aldermen who took a stand against the council's method to evade the by-law, viz., Aldermen Williams and Litchfield, Alderman Litchfield put the following question to the city solicitor:

"Is it a point of fundamental British law that an act is in existence till repealed?"

City Solicitor—Most certainly.

Mr. Litchfield—Does it apply to the statutes and civic by-law?

City Solicitor—Most certainly.

Mr. Litchfield then acked the city solicitor, "Is the Civic Service By-Law still a bona fida by-law of this city?"

City Solicitor—It is.

This was dealing with the following letter read at the council, and in the face of this the Mayor and aldermen smiled and put the letter on file:

"Gentlemen: Re appointment of Assistant City Clerk.

"I am in receipt of copy of the solicitor's reply, and appreciate the stand taken by him. It clearly shows that the council has not only broken a by-law of the city, but also Sec. 178 of the Municipal Act, for in the by-law it states, 'the council each year shall, not, "may," and the Municipal Act states, 'and such by-laws shall come into force and be binding on all persons'."

Why the council should want a solicitor's advice on this I fail to understand. The clause in the solicitor's letter, viz., the action of the council in turning down the new by-law on second reading (during 1928 by the same council) might be construed to be a repudiation of the original By-Law No. 2417, which probably explains the failure of the council of 1928 to take further action.

This may be a kindly act of your solicitor to cover up the action of the present council, but to me it would appear there was every satisfaction with the then council, which was determined that there should be no amendments or alterations, but, that it should stand and be enforced as a good by-law. In any case it was not repealed, and the present council is bound by it, and the fact of the by-law remaining inoperative does not relieve the council members of their responsibility.

The council is in authority to see that all laws are enforced and punishment is meted out to those who break them. Good government can only be carried out by this.

Need I call attention to the seriousness of the stand taken by the present council which, by such actions, loses the confidence of the electors, who can only punish at the polls.

I might also call your attention to the action of someone in authority, viz., relating to a two-years' agreement made between the firemen's organization, and, presumably, the council. I would make no comment, but perhaps the solicitor may be requested to explain. I would only say, if the council, instead of dealing with questions outside its province, would consult the officials appointed, and paid for services, and follow their advice to protect the council from such actions, the public would receive proper and just protection.

It is a pity that a citizen who should have some respect for those placed in such high authority should have just cause to complain of such blunders.

After the reading of this letter I trust that some of the aldermen will see that I am not complaining without just cause. I shall watch with interest the outcome. The solicitor's advice to the council should be followed as per the last clause in his letter, viz., "the Municipal Council is bound by its own procedure by-laws."

I am now prepared to leave this to the voters of the city who may judge accordingly. JOHN DAY.

BRITAIN IN INDIA

Sir,—It has often been said that the disasters in Afghanistan, in 1842, culminating in the evacuation and retreat from Kabul, plus the lying rumors spread in every bazaar in India during the Crimean War, of supposed disasters to British troops, were contributory causes of the Great Indian Mutiny.

Ever since the conclusion of the late war, the British Raj has been backing down a long corridor whose exit is on the sea, and it must be apparent to all who take an interest in India that at some point of time, rapidly approaching, the British Raj must fight or be thrown back into the sea whence it came.

That the Indian politicians, who so vociferously demand their independence, believe for a moment that Great Britain will evacuate India is incredible, else they would keep quiet. Nor does any sane Englishman think so. Why should he? And could Great Britain evacuate India even if she wants to? Why should Great Britain commit such an enormity? And Gandhi, like so many others before him, is finding that it is far easrier to raise a storm than to ride it. In fact he has already been thrown over by the extremists, but "he who is embarked with the devil must make the passage with him," and the fate of Gandhi will be interesting.

The reply of the secretary of the All India Moslem Conference to Gandhi can be read in The London Times, and is a good sample of Indian polemics. Alif Bey, a well-known Mohammedan gentleman of Lucknow, in a speech says:

"Almost half the population of India is being treated worse than animals by the so-called higher classes. This orthodox element of India, which is inimical to national interests, consists not only of Hindus, but also of Moslems. Such Moslems are only Moslems in name and address. Untouchability, caste inferiority and distinctions of wealth are still current in their practices, and that is why India cannot get freedom. Real Swaraj does not consist of social oppression. My mission is only to bring out a revolution in their anarchistic ideas and to convince them that it is not the innocent Britishers, but those Indians who perpetuate inequality, that deserve to be made the target of their bullets."

However, God rules, and not Messrs. Ramsay MacDonald and Gandhi, and that is our comfort during this time of change and chaos in India. The mighty Ghengiz Khan had a glimpse of this truth when he rode into the market square at Bokhara, mounted the rostrum, and told the people it was a mistake to make the pilgrimage to Mecca. "For the power of Heaven is not in one place alone but in every corner of the earth."

Why is Mr. Ghandi being brought to London? Why give him a fictitious importance? Lord Willingdon can give him the proper answer. The All-India National Conference, at Karachi has demanded not only Indian independence, with Indian control of army, finances, and foreign affairs, but complete India commercial and social equality (which they deny to their own people) with Britons. Where do we come in? Cut the cables between India and Simla, and keep them out for six months, at the end of which period India would be as quiet as British Columbia, and people would be saying, who is Gandhi? The lesion is in London and not in Simla.

But as an old soldier and student of war, the question which interests me mostly is, can Great Britain evacuate India without fighting a big war? Would we not be in the position of Crassus and his ten legions, who, weighed down by their arms, fainting with heat and thirst, had to cross those sixty miles of desert and plain, which extended from the hills of Carrhae to the Euphrates. Surrounded on all sides by the Parthian mounted bowmen they were shot to pieces.

Now, imagine for a moment the signal being given for the evacuation of the Indian frontier; that the Hindu Raj had been substituted for the British Raj. It would be the signal for war and rape all over India. In our front hosts of the finest skirmishers and light troops in the world today; behind us, railways cut and chaos.

Two centuries of warfare in the East have taught us that it is far easier to advance than to retreat; that it is easier to get into a country than to get out of it. Surely this is the time to say plain words in India. Meanwhile, lying tongues in the bazaars are doing their work effectively, and daily the prestige of the white man is seeping away, till the end is armed rebellion.

However, we have a duty to India and will do it, I believe, although "the heathen rage and the people imagine a vain thing."

THOUGHTS THAT SING

As long as music's voices
Keep ringing in my ears,
I can forget the trials
That, else, might bring me tears.
As long as I can hear
Glad choruses of song.
I can ignore the shadows
Of hours lone and long.

For blest is he who journeys
Always with thoughts that sing,
Life holds for him a rapture
No other gift can bring;
He weaves anew the lyrics
Of mocking-bird and lark,
He hears the muted music
Of gardens in the dark.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt drydock at any tide, add 18.9 feet to the height of high water as above given.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Songhees drydock add 20 feet to the height of high water as above given.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of May 23, 1881)

Henry Villard has gained control of the Northern Pacific Railroad. This is tantamount to delaying for a long time the building of a branch to Puget Sound. The terminus will be at Portland for many years.

Sir Leonard Tilley flatly denies the report which has recently spread about that he is to leave the Dominion Government.

Advices from St. Vincent state that the details have been received there of the disaster to the British deep-of-war Doterel, which was blown up at Sandy Point, in the Straits of Magellan, involving the loss of 140 lives. There were two explosions, the first supposed to have been the bursting of a boiler used in condensing sea water. The second was in the forward magazine. The vessel went down bow foremost, in eight fathoms of water, in three minutes, and nothing was seen after the second explosion except a few planks. The survivors saved their lives by jumping overboard after the first explosion. They were rescued by boats from sailing vessels and from the yacht of the Bishop of the Falkland Islands. Commandant Evans jumped through a portholo, and was taken from the water much lacerated by broken glass and wreckage. The engineer who escaped was not on duty at the time.

MAN'S DEATH WAS ACCIDENT

Tragic Story of Sudden Demise of Ernest Kemp Told Jury

Accidental death was the verdict returned yesterday by a coroner's jury under Dr. E. C. Hart, inquiring into the circumstances surrounding the sudden passing on Wednesday morning of Ernest Kemp, forty-four, an employee of the Pioneer Sand and Gravel Company, Albert Head. The inquest was held at McCall Brothers' Funeral Home.

Reporting for work Wednesday morning, Mr. Kemp appeared to be in the best of spirits and good health, evidence showed. After doing some work by himself he joined other employees of the company who were repairing the wharf. He was driving spikes into piles, about eight feet above the beach, and remained at the top of the wharf while his fellow workmen were working below.

HEARD PECULIAR NOISE

First intimation of something being wrong was when William Ilett, who was measuring for a pile below the stringers on which Kemp was working, heard a peculiar noise which, he said, sounded like a man gargling his throat. Looking up, Ilett found Kemp's body lying across some stringers, with blood pouring from the nose, evidence showed.

With the foreman and other workers Ilett rushed up the stringers and removed the body of Kemp to the workshop nearby, where it was discovered that the man was dead.

Questioned by Dr. E. C. Hart, coroner, Mr. C. Blogg, plant foreman, said that Mr. Kemp could not have fallen more than the length of his own body.

Corroborating the evidence of Mr. Blogg, Mr. Ilett stated that blood had trickled from the dead man's ears.

Constable A. G. Carmichael, of the British Columbia Provincial Police, told of visiting the scene of the accident, saying it did not appear at all dangerous.

Veteran Passed After Long-Time Residence Here

John Grant, whose death occurred here recently, was a continuous resident of Victoria for twenty-four years, with the exception of three years overseas. On first arriving here he accepted a minor position with the B. C. Electric Light & Power Co., served an apprenticeship as a lineman and gradually worked his way up until he was appointed line superintendent. Mr. Grant was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, and was educated in Edinburgh. At the age of sixteen the spirit of wanderlust took possession of him, and he traveled through different parts of Europe, finally arriving in Canada in the year 1906. Making but a brief stay in Eastern Canada and the Prairies, he arrived in Victoria early in 1907. His rapid rise with the B.C. electric was due mainly to his ability and faithfulness to his duties and to all alike he was known as "Jack." In January, 1916, he signed up with the 67th Battalion, left on March 24, reached France the following August, and was in active service until the Armistice.

He was an active member in the Knights of Pythias and the Masonic Craft, and worked his way through the various degrees of the latter to the Shrine, and was one of the founders of the Gizeh Temple Band. Like many of the adventurous spirits of the Old Land, he had a musical strain in his temperament and took a deep and abiding interest in the success of the band. His untimely death was a shock to his many friends in social and business circles, and the depth of their esteem for him was shown by the wealth of beautiful flowers, music and attendance at the last rites. His memory will live long with those who knew him intimately.

Nearly 500 auto trucks and buses will be used to carry pilgrims to Mecca and Medina on the next annual pilgrimage.

Soviets Honor Lenin on May Day

IN solid phalanx and martial array, with bands blaring and crimson banners waving, thousands of the soldiery and citizenry of the Soviet Republic assembled in Red Square in Moscow on May Day to observe the annual day of celebration of Communism. Lenin's impressive tomb can be seen in the left background with the hordes of the Red empire surrounding it at stiff attention.

STONE—The funeral of Mrs. Alice Stone will take place this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Rev. O. L. Jull will officiate, and the remains will be laid to rest in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

Prominent Lumberman Succumbs at Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, May 22 (CP).—John C. Hargrave, prominent lumberman, railway grading contractor and road builder, died today, aged seventy-five. He was a resident of Winnipeg for fifty-eight years.

NEW HOMES ARE BEING ERECTED

Additional Buildings Are in Progress in Municipality of Oak Bay

The construction of additional buildings in Oak Bay municipality continues unabated. Among the latest permits issued in the municipal office is one for a six-room bungalow at an estimated cost of $3,000. This is being built by A. W. B. Jones on Armstrong Avenue. He is erecting it for himself.

A. V. Price is constructing a new home to cost $3,350 on Beach Drive at the corner of Radcliffe Lane. The house will have five rooms and is being constructed by D. J. Cowper.

There are a number of other new buildings for which permits have been taken out which are of small size and in a number of instances additions are being made to existing houses.

Great Army of Mice Drives Settlers and Workers From Homes

ADELAIDE, Aus., May 22 (AP).—Mice in numbers which confound the imagination are reported from Central Australia, particularly along the Transaustralian Railway. Settlers and workers have been driven from their homes by the great grey army, which is moving westward.

MAN DROPS DEAD WHILE AT WORK

Believed to have been the victim of a heart attack, Herbert Cookson, fifty, of 803 Heywood Avenue, collapsed while at work yesterday afternoon and died almost instantly. Dr. Gordon Kenning was called and pronounced life extinct. After being notified, Dr. C. E. Hart, city coroner, gave permission for removal of the body to Hayward's B.C. Funeral Parlors. No inquest will be held.

At the time of his death Mr. Cookson was engaged in construction work at King George Terrace.

Thirty-two thousand boxes of cut flowers are being shipped from Spalding, England, every week.

INQUIRY TO BE HELD ON DEATH

Body of Accident Victim Was Buried in Wilds of Chilcotin Area

Instructions were issued by the Attorney-General's Department yesterday for full investigation into the death of Antoine Bellanger, a prospector, who, according to information in the hands of the Provincial Police, was accidentally shot and killed near Chilco Lake, in the Chilcotin district, recently.

George Guay, of Marine Drive, Vancouver, has informed the police of the details of the affair. Guay, with two companions, Peter Laugon and Dan Besette, buried the body of the prospector owing to the difficulty of bringing it out.

The fatality took place at a spot far removed from transportation, the police party which left for the scene taking several days to reach the place where the remains lie buried. The body will be exhumed and an inquest held, on the instructions of the Attorney-General's Department.

Only meagre details of the affair have been reported, pending the return of the police detail that has gone to the scene.

TWO ARCHITECTS FOR BIG SCHOOL

H. Savage and E. C. Clarkson Will Jointly Plan Carey Road Structure for Saanich

Plans for the central high school to be built on Carey Road by the Saanich School Board, will be drawn up by Hubert Savage, A.R.I.B.A. and E. C. Clarkson, members of the board decided at a meeting held at Royal Oak. The appointment was made after interviewing the successful applicants, and also K. B. Spurgin, Graham Johnson and W. J. Semeyn.

The board has in mind an expenditure of $50,000 for the school, the largest of the three to be built, following the passing of the $93,000 by-law at the polls recently. All applicants for the work advised the board that it was doubtful if an auditorium could be included in the plans for the proposed expenditure of $50,000. The trustees desire to secure eight classrooms, a laboratory, a commercial room, teachers' rooms, the usual lavatory and luncheon room accommodation, hot water heating and hardwood floors. Trustee Briggs favored doing away with one of the classrooms rather than be without an auditorium.

All the applicants stated that the prices for frame construction were much lower than those in effect two years ago. A frame building would cost between $5,000 and $6,000 a room, according to the finish and equipment installation. Frame-stucco construction would mean an increase of 15 per cent in the cost, while brick would cost one-third above the stucco.

Tenders for the issue of $93,000 of debentures will be opened on June 4 at 3 o'clock, Reeve William Crouch informed the board by letter. Chairman F. V. Hobbs, of the board of trustees, was named to represent the board at the opening of tenders.

Michael Eagle Is Freed on Charge Of Manslaughter

VANCOUVER, May 22 (CP).—Michael Eagle was freed of a manslaughter charge in police court today, but was sent to jail for thirty days on a second charge, that of being drunk while in charge of an automobile.

The charges arose out of an accident at Fourth Avenue and Granville Street at 1:15 a.m. on Saturday, when an automobile, in charge of Eagle, crashed into a store front. B. Asseroff, a passenger, was killed and three others injured.

At a coroner's inquest, others in the car gave evidence to the effect that Asseroff had seized the steering wheel of the car and pushed down the accelerator just before the crash.

City Prosecutor W. M. McKay said that in view of this evidence he would ask to be allowed to withdraw the manslaughter charge. Magistrate H. C. Shaw consented, after which Eagle pleaded guilty to the second charge and was sentenced to jail.

BARRISTER IS ACQUITTED

BURNABY, May 23 (CP).—A. G. Hodgson, Vancouver barrister, was acquitted of a charge of smuggling liquor to Harry Fortier, a prisoner in Oakalla prison, by Magistrate Harry Johnston, of New Westminster, in Burnaby police court this afternoon.

SOVIETS GIVEN OIL FRANCHISE

Spain to Purchase Its Supply From Russia for Three Years

By RALPH E. FORTE
(Copyright, 1931, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service)

MADRID, May 22.—Despite the handicap of not having diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union, Minister of Finance Indalecio Prieto has gone into business with the Russians.

Senor Prieto announced yesterday that Campsa, huge Spanish oil company enjoying a state monopoly, had reached an agreement with Nafta, a Russian syndicate, whereby the latter will furnish exclusively the petroleum needs of the country. The accord runs for three years and the primary condition guarantees that should diplomatic relations with the Soviets be resumed in the future, the latter agree to invest 20 per cent of their total amount of sales in the purchase of Spanish manufactured goods.

By the present agreement, according to Senor Prieto, the country saves about $20,000,000, as compared with other triennial agreements made during the reign of the monarchy.

Honduras has just passed a law requiring life and fire insurance companies to make large investments in the country.

Advanced Refrigeration

The TOP of every Frigidaire is a porcelain-topped table!

Women with only two hands find the broad, unencumbered top of the Frigidaire a very real blessing a dozen times every day.

Food on its way into a Frigidaire and food on its way out need not be juggled, or tip-tilted, or inconveniently parked on the distant kitchen table . . . the flat expanse of snowy porcelain atop the Frigidaire makes such a perfect serving shelf!

It is an ideal place to put piping-hot things that should be cooled off before they are exposed to low temperatures . . . a splendid permanent place to keep the few foods that need not be refrigerated.

And nothing—hot or cold, smooth or scratchy—can in any way scar or mar the lifelong lustre of its diamond-hard Porcelain-on-steel finish.

* * *

A conveniently flat, unencumbered serving table top is one of the very real advantages of Frigidaire Advanced Refrigeration. There are many others. It is these major improvements, developed by Frigidaire, that have made household refrigeration so healthful, convenient and economical. We invite you to come in and learn all about them.

WIN FIRST AID CERTIFICATES

Students at Normal School Take Courses Under St. John Ambulance

Yesterday afternoon certificates were presented to the 150 students in attendance at the Provincial Normal School here, authorizing them to make use of first aid measures under St. John Ambulance Association. All the young teachers in attendance at the Normal School took this course during the term under instruction given by Dr. A. B. Hudson of this city, honorary vice-president of the British Columbia council of the association.

The presentation was made by Dr. Hudson, who addressed the class upon the importance of the course they had taken and the advantages of being able at all times to render first aid in cases of need.

Colonel Lorne Drum, C.B.E., chairman of the British Columbia executive, who was also present, spoke briefly, and A. J. Dallain, the honorary secretary of the association, spoke on the work of the organization.

Glad She Took Neighbour's Advice

Dodd's Kidney Pills Helped Aching Back

"I had such a terrible lame back that I could hardly straighten myself up," writes Mrs. Stanley Jackson, Plainfield, Ont. "I was advised by a neighbour to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, which I did, and was greatly relieved, so now I recommend them to all my friends."

It is statements like this that have made Dodd's Kidney Pills a household remedy all over Canada. For more than a third of a century people have been telling each other of the benefits received from Dodd's Kidney Pills. They are purely and simply a kidney remedy. If your kidneys trouble you, take Dodd's Kidney Pills. They are the remedy you need.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS FOR ALL KIDNEY DISEASES BACKACHE RHEUMATISM 2087 THE PROPRIETORS

REPORTS DISCOVERY OF TREATMENT FOR PERNICIOUS ANAEMIA

TORONTO, May 22.—Pernicious anaemia, until a few years ago one of the most hopeless of incurable diseases, can now be successfully treated by dietetic means, Dr. E. J. Maltby, of the University of Toronto, reported to the Royal Society of Canada today.

"The disease is now in nearly all cases amenable to dietetic treatment in which liver or liver extract plays a large part," Dr. Maltby said. "It has been found the half-digested contents of the normal human stomach, after a meal of lean meat has been taken, when fed to a patient suffering from pernicious anaemia, will bring about an increase in his production of red blood cells, with consequent amelioration of the disease."

Betty Nuthall Flashes Great Form in French Tournament

VAN RYN AND LOTT REMAIN IN TOURNEY

AUTEUIL, France, May 22 (AP).—Miss Betty Nuthall, British tennis star, who holds the singles championship of the United States, scored a two-fold victory in the French hard court title matches here today, winning in the mixed doubles and the women's doubles.

Miss Nuthall and her partner, P. D. Spence of South Africa, raced through the quarter-finals to defeat Jean Borotra, French ace, and Miss Elizabeth Ryan, California girl, who makes her home in London. The scores were 9-6, 6-3. H. W. (Bunny) Austin and Mrs. Shepherd-Barron, British duo, defeated the French-German combination of Christian Boussus and Cilly Aussem, 7-5, 6-2.

Paired with Mrs. Eileen Bennett-Whittingstall in the women's doubles, Miss Nuthall played a large part in the overcoming of the French-Spanish team of Mme. Mathie and Senorita De Alvarez, 7-5, 6-3. In the finals the British pair encounter Miss Ryan and Fraulein Aussem, who today disposed of Mme. Jung Henrotin and Jon Josarme Sigart, 6-4, 7-5.

John Van Ryn and George Lott, United States players, sailed through their opening singles matches without being seriously extended. Lott romped to victory over Andre Piel of France, 6-1, 7-2, 9-7, while Van Ryn was disposing of another Frenchman, Rene Viellard, 8-6, 6-3, 6-3.

In tomorrow's doubles semi-final round, Lott and Van Ryn, favorites, are paired against the British combination of John Olliff and I. G. Collins.

Play in the women's singles opens tomorrow.

LOS ANGELES, May 22 (AP).—David Clark, former Deputy District Attorney, sought in connection with the slaying here yesterday of Charles H. Crawford, politician, and Herbert Spencer, editor, surrendered at 11:10 o'clock last night to District Attorney Buron Fitts at the latter's office.

City & District

Council Meets Tuesday—The next meeting of the City Council will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Monday being a holiday.

To Advertise City—The Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau is submitting to the Canadian Playing Card Company scenes to be used on the backs of playing cards which are produced by the company.

Appreciated Music—Through the courtesy of Cliff Denham, the members of the Victoria High School Girls' Choir, who delighted the members of the Kiwanis Club with their singing on Thursday, will be guests of the management of the Capitol Theatre today.

Annual Meeting Set—The Junior Chamber of Commerce has set its annual meeting for next Thursday at noon, when a luncheon will be served in connection with the meeting. Alderman W. T. Straith will address the meeting on the airplane base.

Close for Holiday—All offices at the Legislative Buildings will be closed on Monday, that day being observed as a holiday by Dominion statute owing to May 24 falling on a Sunday this year. Liquor vendor stores throughout the province will also remain closed on Monday, officials of the board said yesterday.

On Way to Vienna—C. H. Burgess, of New Plymouth, N.Z., was a traveler by the Niagara, which reached here Thursday from the Antipodes. He and Harry J. Guthrie, of Dunedin, N.Z., both of them prominent in Rotary, are on their way to attend the international gathering of the Rotarians in Vienna this Summer.

Completing Work—The task of dismantling the scaffolding which has been used in the construction of the tower which stands on the Imperial Oil service station site, opposite the Postoffice, is in progress by the contractors, Parfitt Bros. The finishing touches on the station are being carried out and withing a few days it will be ready for use. The tower is surmounted by a powerful searchlight, which will be utilized in the directing of aircraft.

Arrange Outing—The Vancouver Island Jersey Association has completed arrangements for the annual membership outing which will be held on Tuesday, May 26. The party will leave the Dominion Hotel at 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning and will tour to the Experimental Farm at Sidney for lunch. Various herds in the district will be visited and a banquet will be held in the evening at the Chalet, Deep Cove. On May 27 the party will tour the Islands and on May 28 will go to Sooke and Cowichan.

Reserves Decision—Charles McKenzie, charged with the theft of an automobile, went on trial yesterday morning before Judge P. S. Lampman in the County Court. After hearing the evidence Judge Lampman reserved his decision until 10:30 this morning. McKenzie is alleged to have taken possession of an automobile parked on Douglas Street and to have been seen by two young women who were the chief witnesses for the Crown. The case hinged on identification and McKenzie, who conducted his own case, maintained he was not in the vicinity of Douglas Street at the time the theft occurred and produced witnesses to support his alibi. The case took up a greater portion of the morning session of the court. E. E. Wootton was Crown counsel.

NIGHT CLUB QUEEN OF ENGLAND AGAIN IS SENT TO JAIL

LONDON, May 22 (AP).—For the fourth time in her career as "night Club Queen of England," Mrs. Kate Meyrick, mother-in-law of two peers, was sent to jail today for her alleged irregular activities as a professional entertainer.

Accused of selling liquor at her "46 Club" without a licence and of permitting unlawful gaming, she was sentenced to seven months at hard labor, fined £30 and assessed £30 court costs.

Her counsel said she had been ruined by the falling value of her investments, and ran this night club as a means to paying her debts.

Announcements

It seems such a pity that a face otherwise charming and attractive should be marred by disfiguring moles, when they may be removed with perfect safety. There is nothing whatever to be afraid of—Miss Hanman never undertakes anything she is unable to perform—and think how lovely to be free of them! 503 Sayward Bldg.

TO ADVERTISE HOME PRODUCTS

Chamber of Commerce Will Set Out Advantages of National Manufactures

The Chamber of Commerce will lend every assistance to the local branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association at the national gathering of that body which is being held here in the first days of June. The first of the committees from the chamber to get under way in this connection is the Canadian Products group, of which Frank Partridge is the chairman.

This committee is planning now for the making of a good showing of Canadian-made goods in the windows of the stores here while the convention is in progress. There will be displayed cards of various types setting forth the advantages of using Canadian-made goods.

Just Roamin' Around

By TWO ROVERS

Will you believe it, we are perturbed? However, whether you believe it or not, we are still perturbed, and, as Rover, tersely puts it, muchly.

Whilst Rover was meandering along the muddy banks of Goodacre Lake, I sat and ruminated over four epistles received in the past week and all addressed to "Two Rovers." Three are politely signed by the authors thereof; one, containing no less than three suggestions and one fault-finding clause, possessed no signature, but was in the unwelcome nature of an anonymous, badly written, misspelt and meaningless, stupid conglomeration of crass asininity.

The golden-rosy hues of a glorious sunset tinged the placid waters of the swan paradise at Beacon Hill Park; the twittering of many happy birds, giving vent to their merriness of heart, was alike melodious and soothing; the babbling of some small children, who were close by, was as delightful as could well be; all was peaceful and enjoyable. Three letters, full of really kind and appreciative thoughts, reposed in the inside pocket of our double-breasted coat; but it was all spoiled by that one, ill-mannered effusion from, maybe a well-meaning individual, but also from someone who does not know that anonymous communications are taboo, bad taste and a singularly complete sign of ignorant, uncultured and low-browed degeneracy.

All and any civil communications call for similarly civil and courteous replies, although even this simple and everyday rule is often not observed by those who should know better. But who can reply to an epistle that the writer thereof did not know enough to sign? That is why Rover and his Boss are somewhat perturbed this evening, as we browse by the lake in Beacon Hill Park and wish all writers of unanswerable letters were at the bottom of the lake.

We strive, as far as possible, to think nice things of all those we know and meet, and also, as far as possible, of those we do not know and will, in all probability, never meet; but to have any pleasant thoughts of anonymous writers of communications is quite in opposition to our very human, roving and roaming natures.

It is always possible that those who fail to answer signed letters, civil and courteous letters, simply do not know enough to do so, or cannot write; but it is unbelievable that there exist any people of any culture at all, who do not know that to send an unsigned letter to another is a breach of good manners, at least, and stamps them as ignorant and mischievous nobodies. Even if their identity is veiled, there are give-away fingermarks on all envelopes, and it is possible to tell who such boorish asses are, after all.

Love of the setting sun shall bring
An interval of joy to hearts
Distressed o'er any vulgar thing,
For, when the light of sun departs,
There are a million stars awake!
Why be perturbed, when so much light—
Each star reflected in the lake,
Proclaims that everything's—All Right!

What Today Means

"GEMINI"

If May 23 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from noon to 3 p.m., and from 5:40 p.m. to 8 p.m. The danger periods are from 9 a.m. to 11:10 a.m., and from 9 p.m. to 11:10 p.m.

The astrological signs of May 23 indicate intellectual progress and some happening that will safeguard the interests of the plan or undertaking which you have most at heart. In the home, there may be misunderstanding, which will yield to the beneficent influences of the evening.

A child born on this May 23 will be long-lived and blessed with material success and felicitous relationships. It will be far-sighted, well-balanced, endowed with a keen sense of justice and have a great and an abiding love for its home and kith and kin.

Born on May 23, you are active, both mentally and physically and have a great capacity for work. No matter what field of endeavor you enter—always provided it is one of your own choice and selection—success will, undoubtedly, be yours, as you will bring to bear on your efforts clear mindedness, singleness of purpose and an unconquerable determination. Nothing in this world will come to you by chance. Everything you earn will be the result of hard, indefatigable labor.

In spite of a practical mind, your artistic tastes are highly developed, and, as a hobby, you may find great pleasure in gratifying these inclinations. Both men and women born on May 23 possess the rare faculty of keeping a secret—a rare virtue in either sex—and they are not inquisitively curious, a weakness common to men and women alike.

You, at all times, suffer from moods, but are usually careful not to inflict them on others. Usually quiet and retiring, you are self-assertive when any attempt is made to filch from you honors or rewards to which you consider yourself entitled. You have a very loving nature, and will make an ideal mate and companion for one who wants a constant, loyal and true life-partner.

UNITED COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS TO NAME 1931 LEADERS TODAY

SEATTLE, May 22 (AP).—Seven hundred delegates and visitors today attended the opening sessions of the thirty-third annual convention of the Northwest Division of the United Commercial Travelers.

A charter was presented to the "baby" Kootenay Council, of Nelson, B.C., by Captain E. B. McMasters, Vancouver, B.C., supreme page of the national organization.

The district covers Washington, Oregon and British Columbia, and is headed by Matt G. Hunter, Victoria, as grand counsellor. Officers will be elected tomorrow.

Thirty-one French war veterans, recently spent four days in London as guests of the British Legion, which has made them honorary members for their services in connection with Legion pilgrimages.

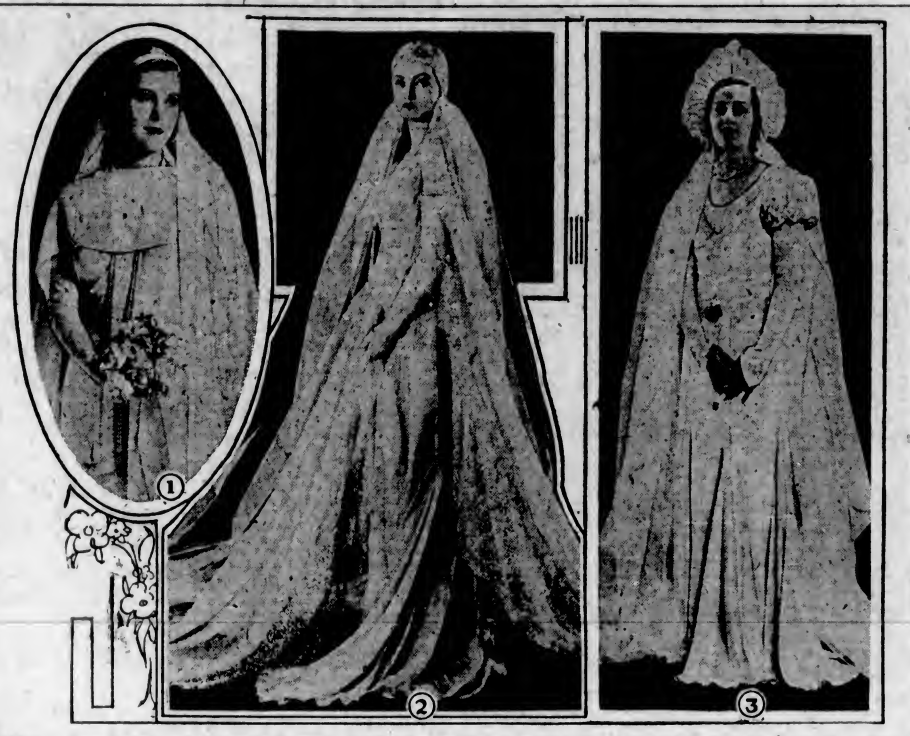
COFFIN CONTAINING BODY OF PRINCESS LOUISE TRANSFERRED

EDINBURGH, Scotland, May 22 (CP).—Borne by eight of the Duff Highlanders and escorted by clansmen in Highland dress, the coffin containing the body of Princess Louise (Princess Royal) was today placed in the chapel of Mar Lodge, near Balmoral, by the side of that of her husband, the Duke of Fife.

The Princess Royal, eldest sister of King George, died on January 4 last, at the age of sixty-three years. Her husband had died in 1912.

Brides Choose From Lovely Creations



BRIDAL costume takes precedence in fashion world. (1) The Grecian influence is felt in this bridal costume worn by Frances Dee. Over a gown of white crepe romain that displays a monk's scarf, a veil of tulle is worn. A wide silver ribbon is caught over the forehead, terminating in a bow at the back. (2) A Juliet cap and flowing veil of shimmering lace are outstanding features of this gorgeous bridal costume worn by Carman Barnes. The costume is carried out in flesh tones instead of the traditional white, the frock being of flesh chiffon unadorned. (3) One of the lovely new wedding gowns created by Reville, fashioned of ivorine artificial silk velvet and displayed at the Drapery Exhibition, London.—Copyright by Star Newspaper Service.

To Ordain Deacon on Tuesday

On Whittuesday morning at 10 o'clock the Bishop of Columbia will hold an ordination service, when Rev. Acheson Mervyn Acheson-Lyle will be ordained priest, and Clarence Lee will be ordained deacon. Rev. C. H. Short, of the Anglican Theological College, Vancouver, will preach the ordination sermon.

Rev. A. M. Acheson-Lyle is on the staff of Christ Church Cathedral here, and Clarence Lee will take charge of the Good Hope Mission, Victoria.

Weddings

HALL—HARTREE

A very quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at Christ Church Cathedral, when Very Rev. C. S. Quainton, Dean of Columbia, united in marriage Miss Dorothy Hartree, L.A.B., daughter of Mrs. Betty Hartree, Lotus Avenue, and Mr. Ernest Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, of Denman Street. The bride wore a charming ensemble of aquamarine blue with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses. Mr. William Hall, the bridegroom's brother, acted as best man, and only immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony. Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Hall left for a honeymoon at Brentwood. Mr. Hall will leave shortly for Venezuela, South America, where his bride will join him later in the Summer. Mrs. Hall is well known in local musical circles. Possessing a beautiful voice, she has been heard a great deal on local concert stages, and last year won the gold medal and the rose bowl in the Victoria Musical Festival.

Will Pray For Heir To Throne

"The British Royal House Founded on the Davidic Covenant," illustrated by colored slides, will be the appropriate theme of an address for Empire Day, to be delivered by E. E. Richards, under the auspices of the British-Israel Federation. The subject, as presented by the speaker from the point of view of prophecy and history, will show His Majesty the King, the lineal descendant of David, King of Israel, sitting and ruling on the throne of the great Christian Abrahamic empire of these days.

The portrait of David, Prince of Wales, in the robes of the Garter, will be placed on the screne, while the audience joins in singing the hymn "God Bless the Prince of Wales." The meeting will be held in the Alexandra Club auditorium, Campbell Building, Fort and Douglas Streets, on Monday, May 25, at 8 o'clock.

TO GIVE TALK ON BENTINCK ISLAND LEPERS

Work among the lepers on Bentinck Island will be the subject of an address by Dr. C. P. Brown, of the William Head Quarantine Station, at the meeting of the Victoria Auxiliary of the Mission to Lepers, to be held in the Y.W.C.A. on Tuesday, at 3 o'clock. Rev. George F. Cox will lead in the devotional part of the meeting and will give a short Bible reading.

The present secretary of the auxiliary is Mrs. E. C. Wilderspin, 92 Wellington Avenue, who will be glad to give information concerning the work of the mission.

GOES ON HOLIDAY

Rev. Dr. Thomson, minister of Gorge and Erskine Presbyterian Churches, leaves on Monday for Toronto, where he will attend, as commissioner, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. After the sessions close, Rev. Dr. Thomson goes on holiday and will be absent from Victoria about six weeks.

Church Personals

The following changes in pastorates on Vancouver Island that will take place on July 1 were announced in the report of the settlement committee of the B.C. Conference of the United Church at its closing session, Monday evening: Rev. F. E. Church, of Moose Jaw, comes to Metropolitan Church here, with Rev. J. H. A. Warr, a Union College graduate, as assistant and director of religious education. Rev. W. P. Bunt, of Mission City, will succeed Rev. F. W. Anderson at St. Andrew's United, Nanaimo, Mr. Anderson taking Mr. Bunt's work in the Fraser Valley. Rev. H. S. Hastings will take charge of the recently-arranged rural Nanaimo field, which includes North and South Wellington. Rev. Jas. Dewar, who has been operating the Mss. Melvin Swartout in Barkley Sound, takes up work at Oliver, in Southern B.C. Rev. H. J. Armitage, temporarily in charge of St. Aidan's, Mount Tolmie, has accepted a regular appointment there.

Rev. D. C. T. Scott, who has supplied the Metropolitan pulpit during the past year, has been engaged to preach during the Summer by several Toronto pastors. His successor at Metropolitan, Rev. F. E. Church, is expected to begin his work on the second Sunday in July.

Rev. Dr. W. J. Sipprell has returned from a ten months' tour in the United States and Europe and will succeed Rev. F. E. Church at Moose Jaw, starting his ministry there on August 2. He will preach in Metropolitan Church tomorrow evening.

AT UNITY CENTRE QUERY AS TO WHAT IS LIFE

At the Unity Centre at 11 o'clock Mrs. Gordon Grant will speak on "The Voice of God." The children will sing "Love Lifted Me," being accompanied by Miss Smith. At 7:30 S. Bazett will speak on "What Is Life?" Miss Boushou will have charge of the musical programme. The Sunday school meets at 11 under Harold Pratt. The rest and healing hour will be on Tuesday from 3 to 4 o'clock; on Thursday at 4 there will be the musical healing service, and on Thursday evening at 7:45 the study class; subject is "Nonresistance." The noon prosperity service every day for fifteen minutes.

DR. A. F. BARTON TO PRESENT UNUSUAL LESSON LECTURE

Dr. A. F. Barton will speak in the Progressive Thought Temple, 935 Pandora Avenue, tomorrow at 7:30 o'clock, when he will give a lesson lecture in applied psychology on "How Jesus Paid His Debts." This is an unusual topic and will be dealt with in an original manner. On Tuesday, at 8 o'clock, Dr. Barton will continue his health lectures, his topic on this occasion being "How Wrong Eating Causes Disease."

"The Inner Light" Is Spiritualist Temple Subject

At the Spiritualist Temple, 1414 Douglas Street, a discussion will be held at 3 o'clock, open to all seekers, and in the evening the speaker will be N. S. C. Fraser, who will talk on "The Inner Light." After the lecture there will be messages by Mrs. Trail. Mrs. W. C. Williams will sing. Donations of flowers for the Sunday service will be greatly appreciated.

REV. M. RICHARDSON TO TALK STEWARDSHIP

"Stewardship" is the subject of the morning sermon by Rev. M. S. Richardson in Emmanuel Baptist Church. "The Vision We Need Today" is the evening theme.

TWO GIRLS WILL WALK 500 MILES

Unique Experiment in Britain Is Expected to Win Big Trade in Shoes

LIVERPOOL, May 22 (CP).—Two girls are playing an important part in a campaign begun by a local factory to win trade worth $5,000,000 from foreign markets. And all the girls have to do is walk. They are testing British-made rubber shoes hundreds of thousands of which are to be put on the market this year.

Punctually at 9 o'clock in the morning the girls report at the factory for duty. They don shoes straight from the works, and buckle on a belt to which a pedometer is attached, measuring accurately the miles covered by the wearer. At 5 o'clock the two return and hand in their shoes and pedometer. Not until a pair of shoes has done 500 miles is the batch from which it is taken passed.

The general manager of the factory explained recently that if he succeeded in capturing the market there would be work for more than 6,000 more people in Lancashire, and trade will be won from American, Polish, German and French competition who took it last year.

Marriage Solemnized Quietly

A charming wedding took place quietly at St. Andrew's Cathedral on Monday morning when Rev. Father J. A. Gaudette united in marriage Dorothy Mary Neary, youngest daughter of Mr. P. J. Neary, of Los Angeles, formerly of Victoria, and of the late Mrs. Neary, and Francis M. Mellan, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Mellan, of Edmonton. Only immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lovely gown of beige lace with a becoming hat of mohair and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley. Miss Lillian Neary, of Los Angeles, sister of the bride, was her only attendant and was becomingly attired in a gown of printed silk in Paisley design. Her bouquet was a spray of carnations and snapdragons. Mr. Jack Mellan, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Following the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. Coleman, Belton Street, for relatives and intimate friends, following which Mr. and Mrs. Mellan left on a motor tour of the Island. They will reside here on their return.

CHEMAINUS W.A. HOLDS BRIDGE TEA

Under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Chemainus General Hospital, a very successful bridge drive was held at the residence of Mrs. Cathcart, there being ten tables in play, with additional visitors for tea. In the dining-room the decorations of white, yellow and mauve flowers with a yellow table-centre were most attractive, green tapers being used on the table with flowers in crystal bowls. Mrs. Southin presided at the coffee urn, while Mrs. Cathcart poured the tea.

The prize winners for the afternoon were as follows: Ladies, first, Mrs. J. Russel Robinson; second, Mrs. Lewis Robinson; third, Mrs. Finlayson; fourth, Mrs. Frank Elliott. A special lucky prize was won by Mrs. R. Clegg. Among those present were the following: Mrs. Cathcart, Mrs. A. Work, Mrs. F. Reed, Mrs. Wyllie, Mrs. N. B. Scott, Mrs. Southin, Mrs. M. F. Adams and Mrs. E. G. Moore.

Crofton

On Tuesday evening the Crofton Ladies' Sewing Circle was hostess at the last of its series of five hundred drives, when a most enjoyable time was spent, there being seven tables in play. The prizes were won as follows: Ladies, first Mrs. D. Bonde, consolation Mrs. J. Russel Robinson; men, first Mr. W. B. Lathrop, consolation Mr. Ferguson. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the circle at the conclusion of the game. Among those playing were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lathrop, Mr. and Mrs. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. McInnis, Mrs. Dyke, Miss Dyke, Miss Woolaston, Miss Winnie Symes, Mrs. Uppgarde, Miss Foster, Mrs. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Miss Jessie MacDonald, Mr. F. A. I.O.D.E. HONORS MEMORY OF QUEEN

Loyal Tribute Paid by Service at Victoria's Statue in Parliament Square

Considerable interest was centred upon the unique ceremony held in Parliament Square yesterday morning by the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, when floral tributes were laid at the foot of the statue of Queen Victoria, a large number of interested spectators being drawn to the scene in addition to the representatives of the order.

The brief devotional service held on the steps was conducted by Very Rev. C. S. Quainton, Dean of Columbia, and followed the singing of "O Canada," the standard bearers of thirteen chapters standing with flags raised in salute to the memory of the great Queen. With them were detachments of Girl Guides, Boy Scouts, Sea Cadets and Cubs, in command of their leaders.

A magnificent big wreath composed of alternate clusters of roses and violas, representing the artistry of Miss Alice Pooley, who annually makes this tribute, was handed to Mrs. Curtis Sampson, provincial president of the order, who, in the unavoidable absence of Mrs. J. A. Macdonald, wife of the Administrator, placed it on the statue. Other wreaths laid there included a beautiful one of Madonna lilies and blue irises, presented by the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, and a basket of roses from the Esquimalt Chapter, presented by the regent, Mrs. C. P. Hill.

Mrs. L. A. Genge, Municipal Chapter regent, who had charge of the arrangements for the ceremony, together with the vice-regent, Mrs. A. E. Hopkins and Mrs. B. Tyrwhitt Drake, received the visitors, who included as guests of honor Mrs. Curtis Sampson, Miss Alice Pooley and Mrs. J. Hebden Gillespie.

General regret was felt on the absence of the 1,800 school children who were to have been in attendance at the function, but it was considered necessary to cancel that arrangement owing to the uncertain conditions of weather.

The service concluded with the singing by the entire assemblage of the National Anthem.

ASSEMBLY FAVORS LABELED GOODS

Canadian Daughters' League, No. 5, Commends Junior Chamber of Commerce Efforts

Members of Assembly No. 5, Canadian Daughters' League, in annual session, Thursday evening at the Shrine Hall reaffirmed their stand concerning the marking of Canadian-made goods so that the consumer is able to see at a glance where they are made, and ordered another letter sent to the Canadian products group of the Junior Chamber of Commerce commending it for its efforts in this direction.

Visitors were present from Assembly No. 30, and Mrs. W. D. Todd, past grand president, assisted by Mrs. G. H. Gardiner, grand sergeant-at-arms, installed the following officers for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. R. H. McInnis; first vice-president, Mrs. E. Stewart; second vice-president, Mrs. Keefe; chaplain, Mrs. L. Otto; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. C. Pike; recording secretary, Mrs. Kinney; financial secretary, Mrs. P. Ormiston; treasurer, Mrs. H. Ralston; historian, Miss G. Adams; pianist, Miss E. Rowe; inner guard, Mrs. Jeune; outer guard, Mrs. Charles; sergeant-at-arms, Miss D. Willing; assistant sergeant-at-arms, Miss C. Godfrey; junior past president, Mrs. Gardiner; press correspondent, Mrs. H. E. Hebden. A beautiful bouquet of red carnations was presented to Mrs. Todd, past grand officer; Mrs. Gardiner and Mrs. Bennett receiving corsage bouquets. Mrs. Bennett acted as assistant pianist in the absence of Miss Mason, during part of last year. The newly installed officers also received flowers.

Hourly Bedside Nursing Visits Are Advocated

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP).—A nation-wide nursing service, including hourly bedside care on a pay basis, was advocated by Dr. A. Grant Fleming, of McGill University, in an address here before the thirty-fourth annual meeting of the board of governors, Victorian Order of Nurses in Canada.

The need of bedside nursing service was evident, Dr. Fleming said, when it was considered that 2 per cent of the population were ill at one time, and only a small percentage of that number were given hospital care. The Victorian Order of Nurses was well qualified to provide such service and was doing so with great success.

Campaign Against Moths

By HANNAH WING

As far as the enjoyment of Summer is concerned, there is at least one 'fly in the ointment"; probably more will develop later in the year, but the one giving the most trouble now is the clothes moth. How can you keep this meddlesome insect out of the closets, the rugs, and from feasting on Winter garments?

The moth itself is harmless enough, merely fluttering about the house innocently seeking a place to deposit its eggs where they may hatch in safety and be assured of the proper food. When one realizes that it is not the moths themselves that do the damage, but greedy, newly hatched larvae, methods of control become more apparent.

The usual mothballs, cedar shavings and like odorous substances which are used to keep moths out of clothing will not kill either moths, eggs or the young larvae. The most that can be expected of them is that their repugnant odor will repel the moth and discourage her from depositing her eggs in the particular place she was about to select. For that reason the important thing to be sure of is that no eggs are in the garment when it is put away. This is accomplished by thorough brushing, sunning, airing or even dry cleaning.

Dichloricide or paradichlorbenzine in pure chemical form, when used in sufficient quantity, have the greatest efficiency both in repelling the moth and in killing effect on both eggs and larvae. To be effective they should be used in the quantities recommended.

Garments worn frequently are not liable to injury, but clothing or material stored for long periods of time in trunks or closets assures a fine feeding ground for the young moth in larvae state.

Rugs that are regularly cleaned with vacuum sweepers are not likely to be infested with moth eggs. Woolen blankets, of course, are freed from any possible eggs by washing and, if carefully stored, are safe. Woolen clothing or blankets may be packed in large pasteboard boxes or wrapped in paper. All cracks, holes or openings in these packages should be tightly sealed against moth entrance by strips of gummed paper or cloth tightly pasted to the wrappings. All cracks in closets or chests may be sprayed with gasoline or benzine, which will kill larvae or eggs breeding there.

To save old woolen rags, odd pieces of fur or feathers in attics or closets is penny wise and pound foolish, as these may furnish so prolific a breeding place for moths that much damage may be done to valuable and usable garments.

CAMBRIDGE STUDENT WINS BRITISH AMATEUR

United States Takes Lead in Net Series With Canada by Winning Doubles

Wood and Shields Defeat Rainville And Jack Wright

American Pair Takes Straight-Set Victory Over Canadian Davis Cup Players, 8-6, 6-4, 6-2—Deciding Singles Will Be Played Today

By R. L. CONDY
Canadian Press Correspondent.

MONTREAL, May 22. — United States Davis Cup team wound up the second day's matches of their series with Canada to determine the ascendancy in the American zone, with a lead of two events to one and two to go.

This afternoon, Frank X. Shields, of New York, teamed with Sidney B. Wood, also of New York, to defeat the Canadian doubles team of Dr. Jack Wright and Marcel Rainville, of Montreal, 8-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Yesterday Shields beat Wright in the first singles match, while Rainville scored for Canada over Wood.

Tomorrow afternoon Wood plays Wright. Judging from showing to date the Canadian veteran would seem to have at least an even chance. If Dr. Wright wins it would even the series at two-all. The final match of the afternoon will find Shields, rangy six-footer, playing against Rainville, who is almost a foot shorter.

In today's doubles match, Wright and Rainville played Wood relentlessly. It proved fatal to give Shields anything overhead within his reach.

WOOD UNSTEADY

The only weakness shown by Shields was a tendency to footfault continually. He was penalized for this several times. He showed fine control, however, and instead of getting rattled guarded against recurrence of the error. Wood lacked steadiness, served a series of double faults and was caught flat-footed frequently by the two Canadians.

Shields served first and with each side winning service to the seventh game, the United States led at 4-3. Then, though leading at 40-15, Wright lost his service and things looked bad. Canada retaliated in the ninth game by breaking through Shield's mighty service, and then Rainville made it five-all. At six-all Canada had game-point twice, and all but broke Shields' service. He recovered, however, and then Rainville lost his service to give the United States the set at 8-6.

Both Wright and Rainville played good steady games, each being brilliant shots. Up to the end of this first set it looked as if there might be a fight.

Canada hopes were strengthened in the second set as first Wood lost his service, then Wright won his and Shields lost his, giving the home team a lead of 3-0. At this point the complexion of the game completely changed. The United States players appeared to have played themselves in, and there was no holding them.

FOUR GAMES IN ROW

The Americans took four games in a row to lead at 4-3, Shields unloosing an imposing array of terrific smashes, which sent ball after ball out of court, and uncanny cross-cut placements that went a long way out of reach of his opponents. Rainville won his service in the eighth game, but the Americans took the next two games and the set at 6-4.

The completeness of their ascendancy at this time was made evident when after Wright served three fine balls to lead at 40-love, Shields almost entirely alone won the next five points and the set.

The United States players were never in danger of playing a fourth set and took the third at 6-2 to win the match at 8-6, 6-4, 6-2.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

William Elphich—While Mr. Elphich was a resident of Chiddingly, East Sussex, England, he indulged his fancy for his curiously prolonged ringing of a bell at Hailsham, about four miles away. He had a church bell rung continuously over his head for 8,766 hours. The history of Mr. Elphich's curious record is contained in Thomas Haines' "Parrish of Sussex."

The Reptile Bird—The Australian Jungle Fowl, belonging to the class of Mound Builders (Megapodidae), builds a huge mound for a nest. Within this mound the eggs are left to be hatched by the heat which the decay of vegetable matter generates within. The young escape by digging through the side of the mound. They are well-developed, fully feathered, and able to fly the minute they leave the egg.

The Phenomenon of East Lake—A peculiar condition, which is locally called "The Paradox," exists in the southwestern section of Lake Placid, New York, where a tide ebbs and flows during the day—though the lake has no direct connection with the sea. This phenomenon is so regular, and its force so great, that it is dangerous when covered with ice during the Winter.

TYLDESLEY PLAYS WELL FOR LANCS

Takes Seven Wickets for 79 Runs as Eleven Defeats Glamorganshire

RAIN INTERFERES WITH MANY GAMES

LONDON, May 22 (CP).—Lancashire, champion English cricket county, beat Glamorganshire at Swansea today by 246 runs. Dick Tyldesley, burly trundler for the champions, figured prominently in the Lancashire effort. He took seven of Glamorgan's second innings wickets today for 79, making his total bag for the game elevens wickets for 115 runs.

Heavy overnight rain made starts in the programme of first-class matches impossible before lunch in most cases, while several fixtures had to be abandoned at Friday night's scores. A strong sun dried out the wicket at Lord's, where Middlesex and Leicestershire were playing, and made it treacherous for the batsmen. Middlesex lost five wickets rapidly and looked to be in for a beating. Pat Hendren, their international, however, stopped the rout with a timely 66, which included one six and four fours, and enabled his country to last out till time and get the points for a first innings lead.

Nottinghamshire beat Somerset at Bath by 139 runs. Sam Staples polished off the balance of the Somerset batsmen today, having an average of four wickets for sixty runs.

Cambridge University batsmen were an easy mark for Paine, the Warwickshire bowler, the county winning by 100 runs. Paine had the fine average for the game of eleven wickets for 84 runs.

The matches between Gloucestershire and Oxford University and Worcestershire and New Zealand were abandoned. First innings wins were secured by Sussex against Surrey and Derbyshire against Essex.

Edmonton Grads Will Meet Ohio Cagers Tonight

EDMONTON, May 22.—Second game of the international basketball series between the Edmonton Grads, international champions, and the Leavittsburgh, O., team, will be played here Saturday night.

First game of the series Thursday night resulted in a win for the Grads with the score of 62-51. The Leavittsburgh girls gave the Grads the stiffest opposition they have had in months.

E. Martin-Smith Downs De Forest One Up in Final

Twenty-Two-Year-Old London Youth Succeeds Bobby Jones to Amateur Golf Title of Great Britain After Thrilling Encounter—Match Ends on Last Green

Runner-Up Away Off Putting Form in Final Thirty-Six Holes

WESTWARD HO!, Devon, Eng., May 22 (AP).—Eric Martin-Smith, twenty - two - year - old Londoner and Cambridge University student, who entered the British amateur golf championship just for fun, today succeeded Bobby Jones as the titleholder.

Martin-Smith today defeated John de Forest, son of a rich baron and a fellow member of the Bachelor's Club, by one hole in the final thirty-six-hole match in a finish that was exciting but not particularly good golf. His medal score was around 80 for each round. It was his first national championship.

The upsets and surprises of the 1931 tournament, which saw the elimination of fifteen United States entrants, including George Voigt and two British aces, Cyril Tolley and Roger Wethered, former champions, but one of the tournament in the fifth round, carried right through to the final.

De Forest was the favorite to take the title, but Smith led him throughout in a ding-dong match, which was squared several times, the last time as late as the thirty-fourth hole, and went to the last green for decision.

The runner up has been putting in great style all week and today's defeat was largely due to his lapse in that department. Martin-Smith, the champion, is a smiling youth with an attractive, natural golfing style free of mannerisms. His father, a London banker, was once a runner-up for the amateur, and was at the course to see his son win.

During the lunch hour Martin-Smith sent a telegram to the captain of the Cambridge University team, of which he is a member, saying he was two up on De Forest. He got a reply which he said couldn't be made public. He said his captain had told him he didn't believe the telegram and had expressed himself in emphatic terms.

Receives Bad Cut From Batted Ball

DAZZY VANCE

PHILADELPHIA, May 22 (AP).—Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn's speedball pitcher, suffered a cut about two inches long and bruises on the right side of his face when he was struck by a ball batted by Pinky Whitney, in the ninth inning of the first game of today's double-header between the Dodgers and Phillies. Vance was unable to remain in the game and Jack Quinn finished. It was not believed Vance's injury is serious enough to keep him out of action.

Ernie Kenny and Beatty Off for Eastern Canada

Ernie Kenny, former Victoria hockey star and now a member of the New York Rangers, and "Red" Beatty, of the Boston Bruins, left the city yesterday for Eastern Canada. Kenny and Beatty have been holidaying in the city for the past two weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Sheret, 131 Clarence Street.

E. WHITCOMBE AND T. BARBER REACH FINAL

British Professionals Will Meet for $5,000 Prize at Leeds

MANERO BEATEN IN SEMI-FINALS

LEEDS, Eng., May 2 (CP).—Great Britain retains one of the richest plums of British professional golf, Ernest R. Whitcombe, Ryder Cup player, and Tom Barber, of Derbyshire, will battle for the Leeds $5,000 Golf Tournament championship tomorrow, and the sole United States entry left in the tournament will watch from the sidelines.

Whitcombe today eliminated Tony Manero, of Elmsford, N.Y., by 2 and 1 in the semi-finals, while Barber downed A. J. Lacey, a Ryder Cup nominee, 3 and 1. Manero slipped badly in the afternoon match after playing smart golf to defeat Percy Allis, 4 and 3, in the quarter-finals earlier in the day.

E. R. Whitcombe advanced to the semi-finals at the expense of W. H. Davis, whom he defeated 4 and 2. A. J. Lacey defeated George Gadd, 3 and 2, and Tom Barber conquered C. A. Whitcombe, British Ryder Cup captain, 1 up.

Tony Manero defeated Percy Allias, 4 and 3.

The greens were flooded this morning and the players frequently used their niblicks on the green to chip up close to the hole instead of attempting to putt.

MRS. ALAN MORKILL AND MRS. A. SCOTT WIN PAR ROUNDS

Mrs. Alan Morkill won the class "A" monthly par competition at the Victoria Golf Club yesterday, when she finished 1 down. Mrs. Alex Scott took the prize in "B" class, finishing 1 up.

BOB KRUSE WILL MEET IRA DERN

New California Ruling Forces Sarpolis to Cancel Engagement Here

DERN HAS GREAT RECORD ON COAST

Owing to the fact that in Los Angeles a new ruling has been put in force that a wrestler or boxer signed to appear on a card must be in that city five days before he enters the ring, word was received yesterday by Promoter Fred Richardson that Dr. Sarpolis, the Cleveland physician, would be unable to grapple Bob Kruse, Seattle, in the main event here tonight at the Tillicum gymnasium. However, the local matchmaker has secured the services of Ira Dern, 200-pound matman from San Francisco, to tackle Kruse.

Dern has not appeared here before, but the fans who sit in will be watching a man in action who has victories over such noted wrestlers as Tom Alley, John Freberg, Dr. Sarpolis, Dan Koloff, Strack, and has a draw with Joe Malcewicz. With such a fine record behind him, Dern should provide plenty of opposition for the Sound city grappler. The Californian is reported to be in fine shape. Kruse has had many engagements lately and will be out to pin his opponent as soon as possible.

Dea Anderson, Seattle, will meet Ernie Arthur, Victoria, in the second bout on the card, while Rocky Brooks, Victoria, will try conclusions with Jack Forsgren, Vancouver, in the curtain-raiser, which will commence at 8:45 o'clock.

HENRI COCHET TO TAKE REST

Famous French Tennis Star May Not Play for France's Davis Cup Team

LYONS, France, May 22 (AP).—Henri Cochet, French tennis ace, told the Associated Press tonight that his health was such that he might be unable to aid France in her defence of the Davis Cup this year.

The world's first ranking amateur came back to Lyons tired from a continental tour, and fell easy prey to a severe attack of grippe. Although he was forced out of the French championships at Auteuil it had been believed Cochet would be in shape to play in Davis Cup competition.

"I don't know whether my health will permit me to play Davis Cup tennis or not," Cochet said tonight.

He denied an announcement by a boxing promoter in Paris that he had decided to turn professional after playing in the Davis Cup challenge round. "I don't know what I'll do," Henri said.

Will Be Seen in Big Regatta Today

ANDY MacLACHLAN

One of the J.B.A.A.'s star oarsmen, who will appear in the feature singles event this afternoon in the big regatta at the Gorge, starting at 2:30 o'clock. MacLachlan will row in the singles in the first event on the lengthy programme against H. Francis, and will also pair up in the doubles with Gordie Scott against A. Webster and W. Stancil. Brentwood College will provide the opposition for the J.B.A.A. crews in several of the events, which are expected to be keenly fought. This evening, at the stubrooms, starting at 9:30 o'clock, the visiting oarsmen will be guests of the J.B.A.A. at a dance and supper.

BIG RACING PLANT TO BE CONSTRUCTED AT SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22 (AP).—Construction of a $1,500,000 racing and polo club near Redwood City, thirty miles south of here, was apparently assured today with an announcement from Eugene Normile, former business manager of Jack Dempsey and prominent sportsman.

Normile announced yesterday the club would be constructed on a 200-acre tract, which already has been purchased for $300,000. He said construction would start within two weeks.

He said he was acting as spokesman for a group of California capitalists. The track, he said, will be known as Fair Oak Racing and Polo Club. The track and buildings will be under the supervision of H. D. Brown, builder of the Arlington track in Chicago and the track at Havana.

Two meets a year are planned, Normile said, the option system of betting will be used at the track, he said.

Battalino Retains Featherweight Title By Hairline Margin

Hartford Boy Wins Call Over Fidel La Barba in Fifteen-Round Bout at New York—Decision of Judges Unanimous

By WALTER TRUMBULL
(Copyright, 1931, by the North American Newspaper Alliance)

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, May 22.—In a bout that looked more like a contest for the featherweight wrestling championship than a boxing event, Christopher "Bat" Battalino, of Hartford, Conn., won from Fidel la Barba, of Los Angeles, here tonight and thus retained his title.

The decision of the referee and the judges was unanimous. The fight was so close that they evidently were unwilling to take the crown away from a fistic monarch on what might have been a slight margin.

The two little fellows fought a good deal after the manner of a couple of baby boaconstrictors. They pushed and mauled and twisted themselves around each other for most of the evening.

The cleanest blows were struck by La Barba, but Battalino showed all the heart and willingness of a champion. He walked in from first to last with that peculiar stance of his, feet wide apart and body weaving, and flailed away with those long arms. He did all the forcing, as a champion should.

LA BARBA BEST BOXER

La Barba was the better boxer. He tied his somewhat stronger and taller opponent up in the clinches and used that educated left hand of his to good advantage. Those left hooks of Fidel's would have discouraged many an adversary, but Battalino simply took them and kept walking in.

The Hartford boy is in a sense a contradiction. He frequently is so awkward that he is clever. In addition to this he is exceedingly tough and strong, although tonight his ribs showed and he looked as if it had not been any too easy for him to make the weight. Battalino does not look like a fast thinker, but he is an extremely earnest worker. His principal weakness lies in the fact that after he crowds in on an opponent he frequently appears to hold his punches.

In other words he works himself into a position to hit and then fails to punch. A man with a good right hand would give him a lot of trouble, but in the handsome little fighter from the Coast he met an opponent who is primarily a left hooker.

Battalino started his attack from the opening bell and did very well up to about the fifth round. For the next five rounds La Barba outboxed and outhit him, but the judges probably thought that the little champion took the majority of the later rounds. He showed well in the eleventh and twelfth and finished strong.

In fact, Battalino looked as if he could have gone ten rounds more. He certainly is a sturdy little fellow, with stamina and courage that may keep his crown safe from more skilful but less hardy adversaries.

Battalino's father, who never has seen his son fight, came to New York, but went peacefully to bed in a nearby hotel before the bout. His son hurried home to tell him the news.

Firemen Defeat Fraser Cafe in Mainland Ball

VANCOUVER, May 22.—Firemen added to their leading margin at the top of the heap in the Vancouver and District Amateur Baseball League race by defeating Fraser Cafe, of New Westminster, 7 to 2, at Athletic Park this evening. The winners fattened their batting averages at the expense of the visiting hurler, Olson, gathering no less than fifteen hits, one of which was a home run by Miller. Miron, Vancouver left fielder, got four hits in as many trips to the plate. Lefty Kaye held Westminster to five hits.

Wednesday XI For Cup Game Is Announced

THE Wednesday League soccer eleven to oppose a select squad from the Saturday loop in the second fixture of the Anscomb Cup series, Monday morning, at the Royal Athletic Park, at 10:30 o'clock, will be as follows: Shrimpton; Burgess, Tupman; Scanlon, Moir, Roberts; Taylor, Fish, McDonald, Edwards, Cosier. Linsley and McAllister, of the Garrison, will be reserves.

STRONG SQUADS TO PLAY TODAY

Chemainus Balltossers Will Make Season's Debut at Royal Athletic Park

DETERMINED to avenge the defeat they sustained here last year at the hands of the Sons of Canada, Chemainus will trot out a strong squad for a twin bill attraction here today. The first game will get under way at 2:30 o'clock and the nightcap at 6:15 o'clock. Both encounters will be played at the Royal Athletic Park.

Lefty McGinnis, husky southpaw, is expected to go to the hillock for the visitors in the matinee attraction, while Lloyd Can, youthful speedball artist, will in all probability get the call from Manager Jack Bacon of the Canadians.

With rival squads at full strength two great games are expected.

DENMARK ADVANCES TO FOURTH ROUND OF TENNIS SERIES

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, May 22 (AP).—Denmark advanced to the fourth round of Davis Cup play in the European zone today by defeating Poland in the doubles match to win the series, three matches to one.

Einar Ulrich defeated Hebda in the deciding singles match, 6-2, 6-4, 6-3.

The first two singles matches were divided, but Denmark took the doubles yesterday. One more singles match remains to be played, but it will have no bearing on the result.

Teddy Beales Wins Decision Over Shaw

Victoria Fireman Given Call Over Vancouver Boy in Ten-Round Main Event—Dave Lewis and Billy Gerard Battle to Draw

Teddy Beales, Victoria's fighting fireman, won a decision over Billy Shaw, Vancouver, in the ten-round main event of Promoter Joe Bayley's fistic card last night at the Variety Theatre, but only after he had been forced to show all his cleverness. Beales piled up an early lead, which proved to be the deciding margin in a bout which was crowded with action. Dave Lewis, Victoria, was lucky to get a draw with Billy Gerard, Vancouver, in the six-round semi-wind-up. About 300 fans attended the show.

Beale's clever display of boxing, no doubt, was the determining factor in Referee Roy Baker's decision. Outclassed until seven rounds, but only by a slight margin, Shaw fought back in the last three sessions, and forced Beales to use all his ring knowledge. The Victoria boy was in splendid condition, and never seemed in distress during the ten-round mix, which was featured by some vicious punching to both body and head.

BEALES CLEVER

Shaw seemed to carry more dynamite in his punches than the clever fireman, but Beales proved to be an elusive target, and many of Shaw's haymakers went into the air. Several times Beales made Shaw miss, and in the last round a wild charge by Shaw almost ended out of the ring. Beales' best weapon was a straight left, while Shaw used a short right to advantage. They fought, at 165 pounds.

Lewis fought an aggressive fight against Gerard in the semi-wind-up, but he stopped several stiff right uppercuts, and was in distress during the last round. This bout was fast throughout, with Lewis always playing for the body and Gerard the head. They fought at 138 pounds, although Gerard looked to be much heavier.

A FAST BOUT

The bout between Frankie Neel, Victoria, and Billy Dicosimo, Vancouver, was brimful of action, and the fans showered the boys with applause at the end. It ended in a draw, and it was a popular call. For four rounds the pair swapped punches, and the crowd was on its toes the whole route. Dicosimo, who beat his way from Winnipeg to Vancouver a few weeks ago, fought a clever fight and Neel was forced to show all his ring knowledge.

Billy Bradshaw, Vancouver, scored a decision over the rugged Danny Pastroe in the curtain-raiser after four rounds. Pastroe fought on about even terms until the last round, when Bradshaw landed several blows to the head and had Pastroe groggy. They fought at 140 pounds.

Charlie Storch and Sonny Buxton, two local boys, fought to an uninteresting draw in the second event. There was a lot of hugging and wrestling in this bout, and the fans did not get very much enthused. They met at 165 pounds.

Antlered Crew Hits Hard in Pinches to Chalk Up One-Sided Victory—Art Minnis Turns in Brilliant Game for Winners

HOW THEY STAND

Sons of Canada	2	3	.400
Eagles	1	4	.200

Next game, Wednesday, May 27, Elks. vs. Eagles.

MANAGER Walter Lorimer and his Elks' ball club climbed into undisputed first berth in the race for the Senior Amateur Baseball League bunting last night at the Royal Athletic Park by taking the Sons of Canada into camp by a 7-1 score. The antlered tribe hit hard in the pinches behind the steady pitching of Doc Webster and their win was well deserved.

The Elks played the same brand of ball as they did on Monday when they whitewashed the Tillicums. Errors were few and far between in the Elks' camp, only one miscue creeping into their play. On the other hand the Sons had four chalked up against them, the majority of which proved costly.

Jack Noble went the distance for the Canadians, but was unsteady at times, especially late in the fixture when the Elks got to him for four runs in the eighth and two in the final canto.

For the first three frames the squads failed to send a runner across the plate. Norm Forbes started the fireworks in the fourth when he doubled to centrefield. Morgan scored Forbes when he caught one of Noble's fast ones and hit the left field fence. He tried to stretch it to a three-bagger and was tagged out as he slid into the sack. Cummins grounded out to Craig and McKenzie followed suit to end the inning.

The Sons came back in their half of the fourth and tied the score. Down singled through first base. Holman struck out. Down was caught napping off first base and was tagged out. Bacon laced out a long hit to right field for three bases and scored on Hilton's single. Doherty fanned to end matters.

In the eighth frame the Sons went up in the air and by the time they came back to earth the Elks had scored four runs. Webster, Dunn, Minnis and Morgan scoring on a series of hits, errors and walks. Singles by Bowden and Minnis and a double by Forbes accounted for the Elks' last two runs in the final stanza.

The playing of the veteran Art Minnis at second base for the Elks was the outstanding feature of the game. Minnis played a beautiful game; he raced back to nearly right field twice to take long high flies, while he scampered around his position, picking up hard drives to throw out several of the Sons at first.

Keen Competition Holds Sway at Oak Bay School Sports

Bill Russell, Mary Bryden, J. Moloney and Joan Wharton Capture Track Titles at Big High School Meet—Hundreds Attend

Before hundreds of parents and friends, the annual Oak Bay High School track and field meet was carried out yesterday afternoon at the Cranmore Road grounds, with some of the sharpest competition in recent years prevailing. Bill Russell captured the senior boys' cup, while J. Moloney and S. Weight finished in a deadlock for first place honors in the junior boys' events. Mary Bryden, last year's junior school champion, rose to greater heights yesterday when she won the girls' senior cup, while Joan Wharton came through with flying colors in the junior girls' competition.

The various races in both classes were close from start to finish, and the newly crowned school champions were hard pressed to come through to the honors. Officials in charge are to be congratulated for the way they ran the long list of races.

T. HAVEMEYER LEADS FIELD AT QUALICUM

Duncan Golfer Heads Home Strong List of Starters in Up-Island Meet

MATSON IS SECOND; TWO WOMEN IN TIE

(Special to The Colonist)

QUALICUM, May 22.—Playing a steady brand of golf from tee to green, T. Havemeyer, of Duncan, captured the qualifying round in the annual Upper Island tournament held today when he circled the sporty nine-hole Qualicum Beach Golf Club course twice for an eighteen-hole total of 78. Mrs. Tweedale, of Vancouver, and Miss Audain, Victoria, finished in a tie for the women's honors with cards of 96.

Right on the Duncan player's heels came Jack Matson, Victoria, holder of the Victoria Golf Club championship, with a card of 80; while N. Philmer, of Nanaimo, and Dr. Margeson, from the same city, divided third place honors with scores of 81.

Mrs. Tweedale and Miss Audain were unsteady at times, but rallied during the last nine to share the medal honors in the women's division. Miss Hogan, of Duncan, finished in third place with a card of 97, while the remainder of the field were closely bunched.

Match play will commence today, and many close matches are expected to be seen before the champions are declared.

Bobby Jones Says British Amateur Is Hardest Test

Super Linksman Declares Eighteen-Hole Matches Most Grueling Major Tournament—Declares British Open Second Hardest, and U.S. Next

By EDWARD LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1931, by the North American Newspaper Alliance and The Los Angeles Times.)

FLINTRIDGE COUNTRY CLUB, PASADENA, Cal., May 22.—Bobby Jones is homesick—not for the thrill of milling, admiring galleries—not for the heat of competition at Forfarshire next month, when the kings of golf wage bitter battle over Carnoustie's fairways for the honor of winning the British Open championship—but just to be back with home folks at Atlanta and a quiet little game with the family minister, "Big Bobby Jones" and a friend or two at East Lake.

For Bobby Jones—having tasted the fruits of victory as no man ever has before him, and probably never will again—has decided to take Ben Franklin's advice and "not pay too much for his whistle."

Nor can we but agree with Bob, sitting here at luncheon this bright, sunshiny day, and compare the happy-go-lucky, carefree Bobby of today with the wan, drawn young American of a year ago, who snatched victory from defeat in grueling match after grueling match over St. Andrews treacherous terrain, only to face the soul-searing trials of the British Open at Hoylake a few days later.

"Bob," we ask, "come on now, be frank. Wouldn't you like to be playing in the British Open again this year?"

Bobby stops eating, soup spoon in hand, and replies, "I surely would like to be home in Atlanta."

That's Bob's way of saying no, emphatically no!

TO WATCH U.S. OPEN

Bobby's mental attitude has undergone a complete transition in the past year. For the first time in his life, although he has won more major championships than any other man alive, Bob will be gallerying his first championship when he attends the National Open at Inverness with O. B. Keller in July. He is getting a great kick out of playing the game for the fun of it, and not saying to say to himself, "I've just got to win one major championship this year; everyone expects it of me."

With Bob, it's the same proposition as the circus performer who, after working for twenty years under the big tent, comes back to see his first circus as a spectator.

Bob's mental change can be explained in this way.

If, a year ago, some excited friend had come up to Bobby at St. Andrews and said in a hushed tone, "I just heard that Henry Cotton shot a 62 at Hoylake," Bobby would probably have had that empty feeling inside and remarked to himself, "That guy's hot and I'll have to look out for him."

But if O.B. said to Bob today "Just read Henry Cotton had a 62 at Carnoustie," Bob would just grin and reply, "That's great, O.B.; hope he shoots a 52 on his next round."

LIKES MAC SMITH

Bobby shows a natural reticence in selecting a favorite to win the British Open. There is no doubt, however, that Bob would like to see Mac Smith win the championship. In a sense Bobby feels guilty of keeping Mac from winning both the British and American Opens, and he agrees that it would be a fine thing for the game if the brilliant Carnoustie veteran ahould walk off with the "mug."

The four times champion has no way of comparing Hoylake with Carnoustie, although he says the former is the greatest test of championship golf he has ever played. Bobby believes the five finishing holes at Hoylake, totaling 2,288 yards, or an average of approximately 457 yards per hole, are unmatched in the world. He compares the six finishing holes on the old St. Andrews course favorably with the last six holes at Hoylake, but the palm for finishes goes to the latter links.

"The only time I ever played Carnoustie," said Bob, "was after winning the British open championship in 1927 at St. Andrews. Forfarshire, home of many great professionals, is the birthplace of Stewart Maiden, and I wanted to make a pilgrimage there for that reason.

"Carnoustie was hard as a rock the day I played it, and a gallery of 7,000 following the match prevented me from forming any lasting impressions of the course. Carnoustie, however, is long, measuring more than 7,000 yards, and will undoubtedly furnish a splendid test for the championship."

TOO MUCH FOR WHISTLE

It was the British open championship that brought Bobby to the conclusion that he was "paying too much for his whistle."

Thse who can't understand how Bobby could drop out of championship competition and not feel the urge to return to the game, fail to appreciate the tremendous physical and mental strain Bob underwent in winning four major championships in one year.

It wasn't until the National open at Interlachen, where Bobby faced another hell of uncertainty with Mac Smith again at his heels, that Bob made his final decision to chuck it all.

And having decided, Bob will stick to it. That's his nature.

So, if people are surprised when Bob only shows a casual interest in returns from the British open, as he has during the past few days in the British amatetur, it won't be surprising, for Bob has put that all behind him. And as Bobby says, "it's a grand feeling."

The four-time king picks the National amateur as the easiest, and the British amatetur, with its many eighteen-hole rounds, as the most difficult of the four championships to win. He rates the British open as the second hardest and the National open as the third hardest of the quartette.

Bobby will be leaving Southern California just about the time the boys are teeing off for the first round at Carnoustie.

THREE TILTS ON CRICKET CARD TODAY

Churches and Their World-Wide Work

Stanley P. Smith, Famous Missionary Athlete, Ends Work

Leader of Noted "Cambridge Seven" of China Inland Mission, Died Recently in China After Forty-Five Years Service

The news of the death of Stanley P. Smith in China recalls one of the romances in the life of the church in these latter days. It is the story of the "Cambridge Seven," a group of athletic leaders in university life, who, under the influence of the Moody-Sankey movement in England and of Hudson Taylor, gave themselves forty-five years ago to missionary service in China under the China Inland Mission.

It was Stanley Smith, stroke of the Cambridge eight in 1882, who, with C. T. Studd, a member of the All-England team against Australia in the Ashes match, took the lead in volunteering for missions and in touring the country previous to going. Tremendous enthusiasm was aroused, especially among students. Professor Henry Drummond eagerly joined them in their Scottish campaign. Canadian and American universities were also greatly stirred by the visit of J. E. K. Studd, brother of C. T. Studd, and recently Mayor of London, and large numbers of men joined the newly-formed Student Volunteer Movement.

The late Mr. Smith, who worked for nearly a half century in Shansi, was described by Sir Montagu Beauchamp at the memorial service in London as a "tremendous personality, a man of wonderful ability and yet more wonderful humility, a man whom you could not help loving, whose great qualities were consecrated absolutely to his work." The first of the band to die was Bishop Cassels in 1928. C. T. Studd is fighting on in great weakness in the heart of Africa. Mr. D. E. Hoste is at the head of the China Inland Mission.

RUSSIA FAILS IN RELIGION

Dr. Wilson Takes Topical Theme at First United—Rev. B. Gray in Evening

Both ministers will preach at First United Church, Quadra Street, tomorrow. Dr. Wilson will continue his discussion of the situation in Russia by speaking on "The Collapse of Religion in Russia." Rev. Bruce G. Gray will preach in the evening.

Church Leaders Suggest Prayer For the Empire

THE Archbishop of York and several other bishops and leaders of the Free Churches have signed an appeal for prayer for Empire Day. "This year, by a happy coincidence, Whitsunday falls on Empire Day, and we hope that all clergy and ministers of religion will adopt the suggestion on the use of the 23rd Psalm, recently broadcast by E. R. Appleton in the Silent Fellowship, endeavoring in their sermons on that day to encourage their congregations to renew their trust in the bountiful Fatherhood of God and to pray for the light of the Holy Spirit upon the British Empire. Prosperity obtained in this way can only prove a blessing to the whole world."

CITY TEMPLE MAKES MOVE

On Seventh Anniversary Local Body Embarks on New Programme

VIRTUOUS VAGABONDS IS DR. DAVIS' TOPIC

The seventh anniversary of the Victoria City Temple will be celebrated at both services on Sunday, Dr. Clem Davies, the minister, preaching on both occasions. The City Temple was founded May 24, 1924, the first services being held at the Capitol Theatre, the congregation on the following Sunday occupying the Royal Victoria Theatre owing to the immense crowds.

Tomorrow will mark the commencement of a City Temple forward movement, recently inaugurated by the board of management. Briefly, the forward movement involves the reorganization of the whole institution, the gathering of new members, the elimination of heavy overhead expenses through this period of economic depression by revamping Temple Hall into an auditorium, raising of funds within the next few days to complete that project, prospective plans for dedication about the second week in July, gowning of City Temple choir, and establishing of the church finances by co-operative support of the entire membership. City Temple members and adherents are now being asked to make their pledges toward the fund for the revamping of Temple Hall, and it is expected that the contract will be let about June 1.

For the anniversary services Dr. Davies has chosen for his morning subject, "What We Are Aiming At." The choir will sing Smart's anthem, "God Is a Spirit," and there will be a duet entitled "He Lifted Me," sung by Mrs. H. W. Carter-Page (nee Audrey Bennett) and Miss Eileen Bennett. Miss Bennett will also sing "His Eye Is On the Sparrow." At the evening service the minister's subject will be "Virtuous Vagabonds," in which Dr. Davies will endeavor to show how the City Temple has endeavored to reach the unchurched masses in all walks of life in its city-wide ministry. The evening anthem will be "As the Hart Pants" (Mendelssohn). Mrs. Georgina Watt, contralto soloist, will sing "O Lord, Have Mercy" (Bergolisi).

The school of religious education, under the direction of G. A. A. Hebden, will meet at Temple Hall at 9:45 o'clock.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Victoria City Temple will take place at Temple Hall on Friday, May 29, when a new board of management will be elected for the ensuing year.

APOSTLE BEFORE PUBLIC OPINION

Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell's Sermon Centres on St. Paul—Choir to Render Worshipful Music

The minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell, B.A., will preach tomorrow morning from his own pulpit on "Paul at the Bar of Public Opinion" (I Cor. iv, 3-4), and in the evening on "The Infallible Tribunal" (I John iii, 20). The service of praise will include the following: Morning, solo, "Rolling and Foaming" (Haydn), Dr. Harry Johns; anthem, "Our Blest Redeemer" (Nichol). Evening, solo, "Abide With Me" (Bohm), Miss Isabelle Crawford; anthem, "Peace I Leave With You" (Clare).

Built on Historic Site

NEW St. Edward's (the Confessor) Church, Duncan, was dedicated to divine worship, January 15, 1928. The first church of St. Edward was built in 1902 and enlarged in 1912. The present house of worship stands on the site where the founder of the city built his home. In early days the Catholics of Duncan were looked after by the priest at Cowichan and later mass was said for scattered white Catholics on Somenos Reserve. The new church is Romanesque in style with an exterior of stucco. It is 75 x 36 feet and has a tower 64 feet high. Over the doorway is an inscription in Vermont marble, "To God, All Good, Almighty, in Honor of St. Edward." The altar is of white stone and marble.

Churches Prepare for Many Camps During Coming Summer

EXTENSIVE preparations have been made by the churches and the B.C. Religious Education Council for the various Summer camps to be held under their auspices. Eleven of these centres of study and recreation have been provided for girls by the council and ten for boys, with two others for leaders.

The boys of Victoria and Vancouver Island will make merry at Maple Lawn, Sooke, July 2-16, under the big-brotherly oversight of F. V. Shoemaker, of the local Y.M.C.A. The girls will follow them, July 17-27. The hotel charges amount to only one dollar a day.

Camp Artaban, on Gambier Island, will be occupied as the Anglican leaders' training camp, July 13-20. This is held under the auspices of the W.A., the A.Y.P.A. and the Diocesan Board of Religious Education.

SOUL PARALYSIS TO GET WARNING

Rev. J. B. Rowell Will Preach to Backsliders Concerning Spiritual Coldness

"God's Challenge to the Church of the Last Days and the Backslider's Creeping Paralysis" will be the subject of the Sunday evening sermon at the Central Baptist Church, Pandora Avenue. This sermon by Rev. J. B. Rowell is intended as a warning to believers who feel the threatenings of spiritual coldness. In the morning the pastor will speak in "God's Infallible Word and Man's Faith: the Results," being expositions in the Epistle to the Romans.

The Sunday school and Bible class at 9:45 o'clock; Tuesday Bible class at 8, theme, "The Hebrew Monarchy," and a question box on the quarter's lessons; prayer meeting, Thursday at 8, theme for meditation, "Hindrances to Revival and sins of Commission"; B.Y.P.U., Friday at 8.

EMPIRE THEMES AT CENTENNIAL

Centennial will observe Empire Day with services of exceptional appeal. The morning and evening themes will be complementary to each other. In the morning Rev. G. Pringle will have as his sermon subject "Ourselves," speaking of Canada and the Empire. In the evening the thoughts of the congregation will be carried beyond the British Empire under the heading of "Others." Very fittingly an intensely interesting programme of worship has been prepared by the Victoria Chinese and Japanese Christians to be given in Centennial the same evening. It will consist of songs, recitations, dialogues and addresses given by Oriental friends.

In the morning Frank Tupman will sing "Land of Hope and Glory" (Elgar), and the choir will give the anthem, "Come Now and Let Us Reason Together" (Pease). The evening anthem will be "How Lovely Are the Messengers" (Mendelssohn).

BAPTISTS MET AT NANAIMO

Women's Missionary Society Joins Association Wednesday in Interesting Programme

A large delegation from the Victoria Baptist churches attended the Vancouver Island Association of Baptist Churches, which met in Nanaimo Wednesday afternoon and evening under the presidency of Rev. G. A. Reynolds. At the afternoon session Rev. F. W. McKinnon gave an address on "Vision," and Rev. Howard Plummer, a missionary from Bolivia on furlough, told of work in that Baptist mission field. Addresses were given by members of the Women's Missionary Society, including Mrs. Boyer, of Vancouver, and Mrs. W. P. Freeman and Mrs. M. R. Richardson, of Victoria. Consideration was given to the home mission work on the Island.

At the evening session the presidential address was given by Rev. G. A. Reynolds on "The Need of the Hour," followed by a sermon by Rev. M. S. Richardson on "Paul's Heavenly Vision." The Nanaimo church entertained the visitors from Victoria and Chemainus for dinner and supper. Fred. Parfitt, of Victoria, is secretary-treasurer of the association.

Revolt of Man Is Theme at New Thought

The morning service at the New Thought Temple will be conducted by Rev. Lionel C. Kenworthy, who will speak on "The Bondage of Belief." Mrs. Clifford Warn and Mrs. L. C. Kenworthy will open the service with "Berceuse," by Tor Aulin, and "Salut d'Amour," by Elgar. In the evening at 7:30 Mrs. Anna Spencer, violinist; Edward Spencer, 'cellist, and Mrs. C. C. Warn, pianist, will give a trio from "Tannhauser," by Wagner (arranged by Alden). Mr. Kenworthy will speak on "The Revolt of Man." On Thursday at 8 o'clock there will be a lecture on the Quimby manuscripts.

TO TALK MISSIONS AT CHURCH OF OUR LORD

Following the denominational plan of devoting tomorrow to missionary propaganda, the rector of the Church of Our Lord, Blanshard and Humboldt Streets, Rev. Arthur deB. Owen, will preach in the morning, and in the evening A. C. R. Porway, who was for some years in mission work in China, will speak.

Rev. Theo. A. Jansen, of Grace Lutheran Church, and delegate, will attend the annual meeting of the Pacific Synod of the United Lutheran Church, which will be in session in Seattle May 25-28

DR. SIPPRELL AT METROPOLITAN

Jubilee Hospital Graduates to Hear Baccalaureate Sermon by Dr. Scott at Morning

On Sunday morning at Metropolitan Church Dr. Scott will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduate nurses of the Jubilee Hospital. The friends of the nurses will be given a cordial welcome to join in this service. At the evening service the congregation will welcome Dr. Sipprell to the pulpit on his return from a trip through Europe and to Palestine. Dr. Sipprell has chosen for his evening message, "Some Things He Said to Men."

Special music has been arranged for both services. In the morning the anthem, "Send Out Thy Light," by Gounod, will be sung, and Mrs. S. M. Morton will sing "Consider and Hear Me," by Wooler. At the evening service Mrs. W. S. Moore will sing the solo in Andrews' anthem, "O Strength and Stay," and Mrs. D. B. McConnan will sing Allitsen's "There's a Land." The choir will render "Land of Hope and Glory," by Elgar.

BISHOP WILL BE PREACHER

Dean Quainton at Morning Prayer —Music of Charles Woods to Be Largely Used

The church works of the English composer, Charles Woods, will predominate at all the services at Christ Church Cathedral on Sunday. At 11 o'clock Charles Woods' unaccompanied setting of the Holy Communion will be sung, at Evensong his magnificat in D Minor and all the organ voluntaries will be played from his works. Standford's Te Deum at Matins, Attwood's anthem, "Come, Holy Ghost," and descants will complete the musical settings of the services.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 o'clock and after shortened Matins. Matins at 11 o'clock, when the Very Rev. C. S. Quainton, Dean of Columbia, will preach. The Rt. Rev. C. D. Schofield, Bishop of Columbia, will preach at the Evensong service at 7:30. Holy Communion will also be celebrated on Monday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings at 8 o'clock.

Boats Get Books and Magazines

The three motor boats of the United Church Mission, which lay in the Inner Harbor during the B.C. Conference meetings, carried away with them when they left Wednesday morning several barrels full of reading matter contributed by the Women's Missionary Societies of First and Metropolitan Churches for distribution in their welfare work.

During their six days' stay at the landing place opposite the Empress Hotel the vessels were visited by over a thousand people. At the service on Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. Mitchell, president of the B.C. Conference, some of the past and present workers were introduced to the delegates assembled. Three veterans who were given special mention were Captain Oliver, Rev. George Pringle, formerly of the Sky Pilot, and Rev. R. C. Scott, skipper of the Thomas Crosby, along with Rev. George Knox, of Cape Mudge; Rev. H. D. Ashford, now in charge of the Sky Pilot, and Rev. Jas. Dewar, who has been doing mission work with the Melvin Swartout on the West Coast. Revs. G. B. Ridland and C. E. Motte have also done marine work for the church.

WHITSUNDAY AT ST. JOHN'S

Both Clergymen Will Preach Intercession to Be Made for Ordinands

Tomorrow being Whitsunday, the anniversary of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, the appointed services will be held in St. John's Church, Quadra Street. The services for the day will consist of Holy Communion at 8 o'clock. Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 11 and Evensong at 7:30. The rector, Rev. Canon Chadwick, will preach at the 11 o'clock service and Rev. Alan Gardiner at 7:30. The Sunday school and Anglican Young People's Bible Class will meet in the schoolroom, Mason Street, at 10 o'clock.

In accordance with the canon of the diocese, the offertory for the day will be devoted to the Diocesan Mission Fund. Special prayers will be offered for Rev. A. M. Acheson Lyle, who is to be advanced to the priesthood, and for Clarence Lee, who is to be ordained deacon on Tuesday.

REV. G. REYNOLDS: "WINNING SOULS"

The pulpit of the First Baptist Church will be occupied by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Reynolds, at both services on Sunday. At the morning service his subject will be "The Wisdom of Winning Souls." Percy Edmonds will be the soloist. The pastor's address at the evening service will be "At the Cross-Road of Life." Messrs. Honeychurch and Richardson will render a duet. There will be music by the choir at both services.

New Society Takes Name of Friend of English Criminals

John Howard Society Has Been Organized With Object of Reforming Released Inmates of B.C. Penitentiary and Jails

The endeavor to establish, on their release, the inmates of jails and penitentiaries as good and useful citizens has been inaugurated in the city of Vancouver at the instigation of the General Ministerial Association. The John Howard Society has been organized as a prison gate association, representative of the churches, the executive secretary, of which Rev. J. D. Hobden, of Vancouver, will seek to lend a helping hand to former lawbreakers, give them sympathy and encouragement, assist them in getting work, and in every way possible play the part of a Christian friend.

Col. C. E. Edgett, warden of British Columbia Penitentiary, and Magistrate H. C. Shaw, of Vancouver, have assured their co-operation, and the prison chaplains, Rev. H. A. Ireland, at Westminster, and Rev. J. P. Westman, at Okalla jail, will give assistance. Promise of help in finding employment has been received from the four service clubs of Vancouver, and it is expected that in every community in the province a smaller or larger group will take a brotherly interest in those who are seeking to live an honest and law-abiding life.

Speaking before the United Church Conference here this week, Mr. Hobden said that in the few days that the office had been open, several men had sought his help and had been given a start in the right direction.

John Howard, whose name has been taken for this inspirational movement, stands out as one of the finest contributions England has made to social progress. As High Sheriff at Bedford, he began in 1773 to devote himself to prison abuses. How wretched these were may be gathered from the legislation that was passed through his efforts, such as that the walls and ceilings of prisons must be scraped and whitewashed at least once a year, infirmaries were to be provided for the sick, naked to be clothed, and underground dungeons were to be used as little as could be. Prisoners against whom the grand jury failed to find a true bill were to be released.

With the reform of the criminal in view, Parliament passed legislation in 1773 under which were established two penitentiary houses, that is houses for penitence and reform, where by means of solitary imprisonment, accompanied by well-regulated labor and religious instruction, the criminal might be set on a right path and inured to habits of industry. John Howard traveled widely as an investigator of prison life, and in later years devoted himself to plague prevention. In attending a case of camp fever in Russia he contracted the disease which terminated his life on Jan. 20, 1790. There are statues of him in St. Paul's London, and at Bedford.

Soul and Body Is Christian Science Topic

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Victoria, will have the subject, "Soul and Body" for their lesson-sermon on Sunday, with the following golden text from Romans viii, 13: "If ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live." Sunday services are held at 11 and 7:30 o'clock. Wednesday evening services, which include testimonies of healing, are held at 8 o'clock.

Cathedral Will Hold Children's Festival Today

THE third Children's Festival will be held in Christ Church Cathedral this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, when the Bishop of Columbia, the Rt. Rev. C. D. Schofield, will be the special preacher. Children from all over the Island will assemble to take part in this service.

The first Children's Festival was held when the cathedral was being built, and the second during the consecration festivities in 1929. A special order of service has been printed, and it is hoped a large number of children, with their parents, will be present.

ROMANTIC TALE OF SEA IN FILM

"The Middle Watch," at Coliseum, Portrays Clash Between Marines and Navy

Again the marines win the day. A marine captain is triumphant in the conquest of his fair lady during the earlier scenes of the Elstree production, "The Middle Watch."

The screen story, which is now being shown at the Coliseum Theatre, starts with the marriage proposal of the marine captain to the girl of his heart, during a dance on board a battle cruiser. This lady and her chum, the latter portrayed by Jacqueline Logan, are accidentally left on board when the dance party returns to shore.

And then the complications start. The marine captain has violated at least one regulation — possibly twenty. That is where the Navy steps in. Official gold braid palpitates with power. Admirals get into wrong cabins and come out wig-wagging profuse apologies. Each situation entangles itself laughably with the next. Finally the Navy retires from the field, still palpitating.

ARLISS SEEN IN DIFFERENT ROLE

"The Millionaire," Starting at Dominion Today, is Captivating Comedy

Presenting George Arliss on the screen in overalls seems ridiculous, but it is what is done in "The Millionaire," the Warner Bros.' picture, which comes to the Dominion Theatre today.

The public is so used to seeing Mr. Arliss in dignified or spectacular costumes, such as those worn in "Disraeli" or "The Green Goddess" or "Old English" that it is certain to be astonished when the star appears for the first time as a garage mechanic, dressed in the togs germane to that profession.

Arliss himself always enjoys getting into roles that give him a complete change of character and atmosphere and he is not actually adverse to overalls in his own garden, although it is not on the records that any one has seen him, either in this country or about his homes in England, dressed in demin and a monocle.

"The Millionaire" presents Arliss in an entirely different role than any he has yet played in talking pictures.

COLUMBIA THEATRE Ben Lyon portrays an "easy come, easy go" young man of New York accidentally cast in the army during and after the Great War in "A Soldier's Plaything," Warner Brothers and Vitaphone comedy-drama now playing at the Columbia Theatre.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE "Fair Warning," Fox movietone romance with a Western background, is drawing unusually large attendances to the Playhouse Theatre. The leading romantic roles are enacted by George O'Brien and Louise Huntington and the supporting cast includes Mitchell Harris, George Brent and Nat Pendleton.

CAPITOL THEATRE Douglas Fairbanks recently went hunting in twentieth century style—in an airplane. He took a train to Kingman, Arizona. There he chartered a plane, loaded in his guns and camping equipment, and went soaring over wild regions of New Mexico and Colorado looking for game. Edmund Goulding wrote and directed "Reaching for the Moon," which comes to a close tonight at the Capitol Theatre.

Personalities and Paintings of Interest

THE camera gives items of interest to lovers of art and literature. Lillian Scott, of Toronto, publicity agent for Famous Players, has been notified by Hollywood authorities that work is soon to commence on the production of her accepted scenario, "Maybe I'm Wrong." Miss Margaret Stevenson, daughter of Colonel Arthur and Mrs. Stevenson, of Peterboro, Ont., has had several of her miniatures accepted by the Paris Salon. The portrait of Mrs. W. B, Milner, a photographic reproduction of which is shown, is a recent work by Kenneth K. Forbes, Toronto, well-known Canadian artist.

B.C. PACKERS ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR

VANCOUVER, May 22.—Stanley Burke was re-elected president of the British Columbia Packers Limited, and Aemilius Jarvis, of Toronto, named as chairman of the board, at a meeting of the directors of the company today.

C. C. Thomas, who was elected to the board on Wednesday, was named to take charge of the company's operations for this season, succeeding Robert Gosse. The latter will continue with the company as director, and the company will have the benefit of his knowledge and experience in the fishing industry.

Actual operation of the company's business will be in the hands of Mr. Thomas; S. K. Murray, who has charge of the company's sales organization; F. R. Bartlett and L. N. Hill.

Miss Lucy G. Moberley, who died recently in London at the age of seventy, wrote fifty-seven novels, the last of which was "The Eternal Dustbin."

The New Home of the Yellow Wings

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Who doth create doth something add
To give the world and make it glad.
—Yellow Wing the Flicker.

This is true. Who never creates anything adds nothing to the world's store of riches. He goes through life taking rather than giving. A worker usually is a creator. Whoever makes something of use creates something, and the world is just that much better off.

Yellow Wing the Flicker and Mrs. Yellow Wing are workers. When work is to be done there isn't a lazy bone in them. Now that they had started work on their new home in a telegraph pole in front of Farmer Brown's house they kept steadily at it. Yellow Wing would work until tired, when Mrs. Yellow Wing would relieve him. You see, there wasn't room for both to work at the same time. They certainly did make the chips fly, those two.

The first day they worked until jolly round red Mr. Sun had started for bed behind the Purple Hills and the Black Shadows were already stealing across Farmer Brown's yard. The next morning they could hardly wait for the coming of daylight. It was peck, peck, peck with their sharp bills all day long, one working while the other hunted food, and then changing occupations.

As Mrs. Yellow Wing had said, there was a soft spot in that pole and this made the work easier. First they cut a hole straight in. Then they began to cut down. After a while the hole was so deep that they had to climb up to the entrance in order to drop the chips outside. Deeper and deeper grew the hole until Yellow Wing began to wonder when Mrs. Yellow Wing would be satisfied.

"Are you trying to get to the bottom of the pole?" he asked mildly.

"I am trying to get it deep enough to discourage any visitors," replied Mrs. Yellow Wing. "I'm going to have it deep enough for our babies to be safe when they are tiny and helpless. I'm not going to have it possible for Sammy Jay or anybody else to sit in the doorway, reach down and pull one of the darlings out when we are off hunting food for them. I've known it to happen in a shallow house. Yes, sir, I've known it to happen. It isn't going to happen here."

"Right, my dear, quite right," agreed Yellow Wing. "I sometimes wonder if this pole was a wise choice, it stands so out in the open. Every one will know where we live."

"Who cares?" retorted Mrs. Yellow Wing. "Most folks would know sooner or later anyway, and they may as well know it first as last. Has it occurred to you that Mr. Blacksnake can't get up here? You remember that he got our eggs once. He can't climb this smooth pole as he can a tree. Black Pussy isn't so likely to bother us either. She can climb up here, of course, but I don't believe she will. She doesn't like climbing anything so straight and tall. And if she should she would have to hang on with the claws of all four feet and we could drive her down without any trouble. Really, my dear, it is the best location we ever have had."

"Perhaps it is, my dear. Perhaps it is," Yellow Wing hastened to say. "If it suits you, it suits me. Aren't you almost through?"

Mrs. Yellow Wing brought out the last of the chips she had cut. Then she inspected their work carefully. She took off a bit here and a bit there to smooth the walls. Satisfied at last, she climbed up and began to cut chips out of the room. Instead of throwing these outside, she dropped them down to the bottom or floor of the house. Yellow Wing saw what she was doing and rejoiced. He knew then that the new house was almost finished; Mrs. Yellow wing was making a bed for the eggs. She was making a bed of chips, for this is all the nest she uses. Two or three times she went down to see if that bed of chips was thick enough. Finally she poked her head out the doorway.

"Let's go eat," said she.

The next story: "Mrs. Yellow Wing Makes a Discovery."

They certainly did make the chips fly, those two

FRIEND PAYS FINE FOR DR. A. S. MURPHY

VANCOUVER, May 22 (CP).—Although Dr. A. S. Murphy in police court Wednesday chose to go to jail for two months rather than pay a fine of $50, and spent Wednesday night in custody, a friend came forward today and paid the penalty imposed by Magistrate Paul McD. Kerr.

Dr. Murphy was convicted on a charge of practising medicine without a proper licence following removal of his name from the roll of medical practitioners in British Columbia.

Trading Dull, but Prices Move Up Slightly at N.Y.

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP).—Most stocks were steady to firm today, ignoring a group weakness in the chemicals and coppers. Trading was dull, but the market closed fractionally higher on the average.

Rails put the list on the upward track with a rally of a point or two in the morning. The carriers eventually lost part of their gains, yet their recovery, based on the move for a rise in freight rates, was followed by a relaxation of pressure against the pivotal industrials and utilities.

Chemicals reduced extreme losses of 1 to nearly 5 points. Sales for the session totaled 1,600,000 shares.

Following the omission of the Gulf States Steel preferred dividend, that stock broke 7 points. Case rallied more than 4 points in response to the regular disbursements voted after yesterday's close. People's Gas threatened to drop below 200, but held at 203 after a 15-point tumble, and cut its loss to 3.

American Telephone, National Biscuit, American Can, North American, Southern Railway and Woolworth gained 1 to 2 net. U.S. Steel, closing at 100, was 1-8 higher. Sears-Roebuck, whose sales from April 24 to May 21 were off only nine-tenths of 1 per cent, firmed. Eastman Kodak had a sharp reaction, losing 3 points. Foreign exchanges were firm, especially sterling cables, which advanced 3-32 to $4.86 19-31.

Bonds were irregularly higher. The averages composed of the closing prices of ten bonds each of the rail, public utility and industrial groups were all higher than on Thursday. Trading was somewhat less active, however.

C.G.E. DECLARES USUAL DIVIDEND

TORONTO, May 22.—The board of directors of Canadian General Electric Company, Limited, has declared the regular quarterly dividends of 1 3-4 per cent on preference shares and $1.00 per share, or 2 per cent on the common stock.

It was stated the earnings for the first four months of 1931 were well in excess of dividend requirements, also that while the company's total volume of business is lower than a year ago, the sales of incandescent lamps and electric household appliances are being well maintained, and in most cases are ahead of last year.

LAKE OF THE WOODS MANAGER RESIGNS

MONTREAL, May 22.—Resignation of W. W. Hutchison, general manager, on account of ill health, was accepted at a meeting of the board of directors of Lake of the Woods Milling Company here yesterday. M. J. Breen, Western manager and also a member of the board of directors, was appointed general manager. Routine business completed the board meeting.

TORONTO GENERAL STOCK EXCHANGE

TORONTO, May 22 (CP).—Turnover on Toronto Stock Exchange today was only about half that of yesterday and well under any previous day this week, the small volume being a result of an easing up of the pressure which had forced the average of prices down to the lowest level since the records have been kept.

With pressure lifting, stocks steadied, though there was no sign of buoyancy.

Bank stocks, down from 1 to 3 points to 1931 record bottom prices, and the oil group were the principal sections where selling still was in evidence.

International Nickel, C.P.R., and Ford of Canada, which had been unchanged to a small fraction higher, weakened towards the close and left off just under last night. Brazilian at 15 was down the major portion of a point.

Volume was less than 15,000 shares.

B.C. Oils and Golds Feature Trading on Mainland Exchange

VANCOUVER, May 22.—The Vancouver stock market came in for additional recovery today with British Columbia oils and golds prominent in the forward movement. Accumulation in the featured issues during the early dealings imparted a more optimistic tone and stocks reached their high points for the day prior to the noon close. However, on resumption of trading, prospects of the long holiday recess prompted rather heavy profit taking, and leaders eased from their best levels.

Despite the realizing in the last minutes popular shares finished the day with fair advances. An outstanding feature was Pioneer, which reacted favorably on the optimistic addresses made by the company's officers at the annual meeting.

Pioneer opened at 2.30 and steadily advanced to a closing selling price at 2.35, to end the day at 2.36 bid, a net gain of 11 points. Lorne Gold, a neighbor of Pioneer in the Bridge River district, was also in demand, but the rally during the morning was offset by profit taking and the stock closed unchanged at 9.3-4 cents bid. Premier sold at a new peak for this movement at 78 cents and closed firm at 75 cents bid.

Bullish news from the Flathead Valley caused a steady buying flurry in Amalgamated and Crow's Nest. Amalgamated opened nearly 2 cents higher at 12 cents and rose to 15 cents during the forenoon session. In the late trading it was shaded down to 13 cents, to close at the morning opening price, a net gain of 1 1-2 cents. Crow's Nest rose from 11 cents to 12 1-2 cents, but eased in sympathy with the shares of the holding company, to end the day with a net increase of 1 1-4 cents at 10 3-4 cents bid.

In sluggish trading, leaders in the Turner Valley oils group declined, but the extreme apathy in this division held losses within modest limits. C. & E. continued to slide and the price closed 2 cents below Thursday's final bid at 34 cents. Home at 52 cents and Mayland at 17 1-2 cents both closed 1 cent net lower.

Empress of Canada Outbound to Orient Ports Via Honolulu

Leaving This Afternoon—Loch Katrine Here This Morning—Pacific Grove Due Sunday Night—Cargo Vessels Coming Next Week

Fresh from her record-breaking voyage from Yokohama to Victoria via Honolulu, the Royal Mail Ss. Empress of Canada, Captain A. J. Hailey, R.N.R., is due to arrive here from Vancouver at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and after embarking local passengers and taking on mails and cargo, will sail for Honolulu, her first port of call, one hour later. The Canada has about three hundred travelers in all classes aboard, and a good cargo.

Prominent among the passengers is one of Japan's leading naval experts, a prince and uncle of the present Empress. He is booked on the ship's list as Captain Tagashige Shimadzu travelling incognito with Princess Shimadzu and daughter. He was for a time Japanese naval attache at London, and was an adviser to his country's delegation at the last international conference.

Other prominent travelers aboard the Canada include Mrs. Myrtle F. Cassell, of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. John Strachan, of Huala Lampur, Malay States, where the former is general manager and chief engineer of the Federated Malay States Railway, returning after an extended American and European tour of inspection.

From Liverpool and London, via Panama and California ports, the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's motor vessel Loch Katrine is due at William Head this morning at 6 o'clock, which should bring her alongside Rithet Piers in the neighborhood of 8 o'clock, according to Adam P. Moffatt, local agent of the company. The Loch Katrine has five passengers aboard and will unload 100 tons of general cargo here before proceeding to Vancouver and Puget Sound ports.

Sailing from San Francisco yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the Furness liner Pacific Grove, Captain Anderson, is due here late Sunday night or early Monday morning, according to King Brothers, local agents of the company. The Pacific Grove is coming from the United Kingdom via Panama and California ports, and is bringing nine passengers, four of whom will debark here. They are Mrs. H. L. Doddy, who will reside with a son already living here, and Mr. Yuile and two daughters. H. T. Alexander, Mrs. A. Barrington, E. Dunbar, Miss A. Dunbar and D. Williams will continue to Vancouver, their destination. Cargo for Victoria amounts to 120 tons of general merchandise.

From Yokohama the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Ss. Yokohama Maru is due to arrive here on May 27 with passengers and freight for this port. The Yokohama has a light passenger list and a small cargo to land here. Her total passengers in both classes number forty-one. Of these, five tourist and twelve third class will leve the ship here, and twelve tourist and the same number third class will proceed to Seattle, according to the local office of the steamship company. She will dock at Ogden Point.

From the United Kingdom via the Canal and Los Angeles, the Donaldson freighter Gracia is due to arrive at Rithet Piers on Wednesday, May 27, according to A. E. Shanks, of Rithet Consolidated, Limited, agents. The Gracia is bringing 125 tons of general cargo for Victoria, which will be discharged before she proceeds to Mainland and Puget Sound ports.

Aero Club Will Hold Meet Here On Empire Day

WHAT promises to be one of the major holiday attractions on Monday is the flying meet which will take place at the Lansdowne Road flying field. The meet is sponsored by the Aero Club of British Columbia and four planes will make a special trip from Vancouver to take part in the event. Cecil Eve's low-wing monoplane will also take part in the interesting programme of events which is being arranged. The Mainland planes are timed to arrive at the local airport about 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Preacher and Painter Refused Entry Into Canada by Immigration Officer

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP).—Investigation of charges that Rev. Harry Freemantle, Canadian-born resident of Los Angeles, was refused entry to this country at Windsor, Ontario, is being made by the Department of Immigration here. Details of the case were lacking in the department, but it was understood Mr. Freemantle had returned to his home in California after being turned down by immigration officers at the border.

WINDSOR, May 22 (CP).—Local immigration officers today give denial to a story of alleged unjustified rejection of Harry Freemantle, resident of Los Angeles, but Canadian born.

"He was rejected because he did not have sufficient funds to assure that he would not seek employment in Canada," said Orval G. Adams, chief inspector of immigration for the port of Windsor.

It is alleged by Mr. Freemantle that he was on his way to visit a brother near Bracebridge when he was refused admission to Canada. He is referred to as Rev. Harry Freemantle, a Methodist minister.

The report of local officials is that the man gave his occupation as painter, and mentioned casually that he had been a preacher in the Free Methodist Church.

Canadian National Railways Will Not Operate The Confederation This Season

MONTREAL, May 22.—Announcement that the Canadian National Railways will not operate their de luxe transcontinental train this Summer, the Confederation, across Canada, was made today by Sir Henry Thornton, chairman and president of the Canadian National system. This action has been decided upon after careful study, Sir Henry stated, and followed train service reductions already put into effect in the interests of economy in all parts of Canada.

"In the addition to train service reductions already made," said Sir Henry, "it has been decided that the Canadian National Railways will this Summer discontinue the operation of the Confederation across Canada. This will mean, so far as the Canadian National Railways are concerned, the operation of only one transcontinental system train daily, the Continental Limited, operating every day between Montreal and Vancouver and serving all intermediate points on the Canadian National system. The National, operating between Toronto and Winnipeg, will continue as at present.

ALL PLEADED GUILTY

TRENTON, May 22.—Federal Judge Avis imposed fines of $500 each today on seven sailors of the British motor yacht Maibo, which was captured in Little Egg Harbor, allegedly carrying $80,000 worth of liquor. All pleaded guilty, after Paul A. Meister, the captain, and Charles A. Awalt, the mate, were convicted and sentenced to a year and a day in Atlanta penitentiary.

STARTS LONG VOYAGE

OSLO, May 22 (AP).—A Norwegian sailor, Johannes Andersen, is on the way to North America in a small, open boat. He started yesterday from Frederikstad, with provisions for two months.

Closed Season for Halibut Will Be Extended

VANCOUVER, May 22.—Extension of the close season for halibut fishing will come into effect this year as a result of the exchange of ratifications, on May 9, of the halibut treaty between Canada and the United States, which was signed on that date last year, according to word received at the office of the Federal Fisheries Department here.

From now on the close season will commence on November 1, two weeks earlier than hitherto, and will continue until the February 15 following. The latter date is the same as usual. At the moment, the department states, it is not proposed to put into operation other regulations that are contemplated and which will ultimately be enacted under the treaty.

Mining Official Travels Across Canada in Plane

HALIFAX, May 22.—W. N. Archibald, of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co., Trail, B.C., has arrived here after a flight across Canada in a Puss Moth plane, on business for his company.

ASSISTANT FOR BOSUN

Excuses of No Avail When Mechanical Mate Gives Orders

HAS SOME PLEASANT FEATURES AS WELL

A robot bosun's mate was recently put through his paces in the St. Andrew's works of Graham's Navyphones, Slough, England, before being "signed on" in a foreign battleship getting ready for commission in one of the royal dockyards. "He" is the last word in the development of the mechanical sailor.

In addition to calling away the picket boat's crew in stentorian tones through thirty or forty loud speakers distributed between decks all over the ship (which is not a new feature), this robot can in the so-called "silent hours," when the day's work is over, regale the ship's company with jazz or chamber music. He can broadcast music played by the ship's band or from a gramophone record, just like the programmes of the British Broadcasting Company.

A grating has been fixed in the trumpet mouth to prevent some impatient "matelot" from stuffing a sock or piece of cotton waste down the robot's brazen throat. This should simplify dialogue at the commander's defaulters' table; the abscene from scrubbing decks will henceforth plead with less effect than ever the ancient but recurring plaint "I went for a pipe."

To keep the priority of service requirements, the first movement of the official transmitter cuts off the entertainment programme and abrupt silence awaits the repetition of the captain's order, whether it be a welcome "Hands to supper" or the watch call for hoisting boats.

The robot's musical proclivities, however, will introduce a new need for Solomon's wisdom in ship administration. If the fo'c'slemen want grand opera and the quarter-deckmen desire jazz, what then?

DEAL RUMORED FOR PASSENGER VESSELS

Another shipping deal, sale of the steamships Yale and Harvard to the Pacific Steamship Company, is rumored in San Francisco. The report said the coastal liners operated by the Matson Navigation Company between San Francisco, Los Angeles Harbor and San Diego soon would be flying the flag of the Pacific Steamship Company.

It was said that the Matson Navigation Company, which acquired the vessels from the Los Angeles Steamship Company with other ships of the Lassco Line, is not interested in coastwise trade and will dispose of the Yale and Harvard. The deal is to follow reorganization and refinancing of the Pacific Steamship Company, it was reported in San Francisco.

NEW FERRY GIVES IMPROVED SERVICE

NEW WESTMINSTER, May 22.—Giving a faster and improved ferry service between Woodward's Landing and Ladner, the new landing and ferry road on the south side of the Fraser River was placed in operation today. The crossing of the river will be made in ten minutes instead of half an hour, as formerly, by the old route. The entire project of the new, hard-surfaced road and the landing has been carried out at a cost of $80,000.

Official Opening Of Churchill Set For Next Summer

Minister of Railways and Canals Informs House of Commons Only Trial Shipments Will Leave Hudson Bay Port This Year

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP).—Official opening of the port of Churchill on Hudson Bay will not take place until 1932. This was stated in the House of Commons today by Hon. R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals, during continued discussion, in committee of supply, of an item amounting to $6,000,000 for the Hudson Bay Railway and terminal construction. The item, which was under consideration for some hours yesterday, passed the committee today.

Dr. Manion informed the committee that about all that could be done this year would be to have some trial shipments out of Churchill. These were regarded as important, and the department was devoting its energies to getting the port into condition to permit them. The big elevator now under construction, he said, would not be ready until September, the navigation season in and out of the bay was comparatively short, and consequently, if the test shipments were successfully carried through, the department would have done about all that could be expected.

Certain companies desirous of shipping through Churchill for the sake of advertising their products, said Dr. Manion, had been informed that they must wait until 1932. He also stated that there was no intention of making a trial shipment of livestock from Churchill this year.

SALVAGE SHIPS HAVE BUSY DAY

Fishing Boat Sinks and Tugboat Needs Aid When Stranded on Coast Island

VANCOUVER, May 22. — The thirty-nine-foot fishing boat Pike's Peak, owned by Nels Jean, was sunk off Cracroft Island, opposite Boat Harbor, on Thursday morning, and the salvage boats Skookum and Helac left last night to try to recover her. It is reported she sank in 150 fathoms. No details of the accident have yet been received. The vessel's captain is now en route here to report to the underwriters.

The presence of the two salvage craft northbound proved of value in the later stranding of the tug Sea Wave, as they were bound in that direction. Consequently early this morning, upon receipt of the condition of the Sea Wave, a wireless order was sent to the Skookum to proceed to Thurlow Island and attempt to salvage the tug. This places the salvage vessel alongside the Sea Wave some time this afternoon. The mission boat Columbia is standing by and has the Sea Wave's crew aboard.

NEW MISSION CRAFT LAUNCHED IN NORTH

The fine new Anglican Church mission boat, which will replace the Northern Cross, for many years in the service of the church in Northern British Columbia waters, was launched at Prince Rupert on Tuesday of this week. The vessel is 47 feet long and is equipped with a 50 horsepower 5-cylinder Gardner Diesel engine. According to those who have seen her building, she has handsome lines and comfortable quarters. She will be in commission by the end of this month, as she was launched ready for to run her trials. The new boat will be named after her predecessor, and will bear the same honored title. If she carries on as well and as ably under her present skipper, Rev. W. B. Jennings, as did the old one, on which the veteran Canon W. F. Rushbrook labored so long and with such marked success, there is a wonderful career for her in the future.

KILLED IN ROCK BLAST

KAMLOOPS, May 22.—A blast of rock caused the instant death of W. Chavan, thirty-eight, Czechoslovakian, working on the C.P.R. new grade between Walachin and Savona. At the inquest, a verdict of accidental death was returned.

NOTICE TO MARINERS

Mariners are advised that the black can buoy marking Imperieuse Rock, Nanoose Harbor, is reported out of position.

This buoy will be replaced in its correct position as soon as possible.

A. W. R. WILBY,
Agent, Marine Department.

WILL TRY FOR FLIGHT RECORD

Flyers Are Ready to Attempt World Tour in Ten Days

The Soviet Government has reversed a previous decision and given permission for Wiley Post and Harold Gatty to fly over Russia on their projected round-the-world flight. The Soviet information bureau in the United States has been advised from Moscow that permission has been given. The flyers are now on their way from Oklahoma City to Washington. The flyers had intended to seek an interview with the British ambassador regarding Soviet permission, Gatty being a a British subject.

Gatty and Post will attempt a flight around the world in ten days. They expect to leave Roosevelt Field, the starting point, before the end of the week. The first leg of the flight will be to Harbor Grace, Nfld., from where a nonstop flight across the Atlantic to Berlin is planned. The other stopping points chosen are Moscow, Irkutsk, Khabarovsk, Petropavlovsk, Nome, Edmonton and New York. The route is about 16,000 miles.

VANCOUVER SHIPPING

VANCOUVER, May 22. — Good time was made in loading the Furness freighter Ss. Trelonke with a cargo of 7,250 tons of grain for United Kingdom. The ship was completed after ten hours and thirty minutes' work by the longshore gangs and the grain chutes at the elevators.

Loading commenced at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning and was continued through the balance of the day, resuming at 8 o'clock Thursday and completing at 11:30 same morning. The ship sailed Thursday afternoon.

After a trip abroad, a lady inquired of her colored washerwoman: "Lucy, do you and your husband quarrel now the same as you used to?"

"No, indeed, ma'am," was the reply.

"That is good. I'm sure you're very glad of it, arn't you?"

"Ah sho'ly is."

"What caused you to stop quarreling, Lucy?" the lady asked.

The explanation was simple and sufficient:

"He died."

1 BIRTHS

RENAUD—At the St. Joseph's Hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Renaud, Lake Hill, May 20, a daughter.

SMITH—To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, 1106 Beaview Avenue, at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, May 22, a son.

2 DEATHS

STONE—On May 21 there passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital, Mrs. Alice Stone, aged sixty years, born in High Wycombe, England, and a resident of Saanich for the last seven years, residing at 3528 Calumet Avenue. There survive her husband, Mr. James Stone, at home; one son, James George, and three grandchildren, of 3673 Darwin Avenue.

The funeral will take place this afternoon, May 23, at 3 o'clock, from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Rev. C. L. Jull will officiate and the remains will be laid to rest in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

KEMP—At Albert Head on Wednesday, May 20, Ernest Kemp, aged forty-four years, of Colwood. The late Mr. Kemp was born in England and had been a resident of this district for the last twenty years, and is mourned by his mother, with whom he resided.

The funeral will take place this afternoon from McCall Bros' Funeral Home to St. John's Church, Colwood, where service will be held at 3 o'clock. Rev. A. L. Nixon will conduct the service, after which interment will be made in St. John's Cemetery. Officers and members of Pride of the Island Lodge, Sons of England, will also hold a service at the graveside.

FYNN—On May 22 there passed away at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Mrs. Victoria Anna Fynn, widow of Captain John M. Fynn. She was born in Newfoundland sixty-nine years ago and had been a resident of this city for the past thirty-two years. There survive three sons, William J. of Victor Street; Alton, of Anyox, B.C.; Cecil, of Seattle, and two daughters, Mrs. A. Harrison, of Forbes Street, and Mrs. E. Kenaham, of Trail, B.C.

The funeral will take place this afternoon, May 23, at 2:30 o'clock, from the Hampshire Road.

The funeral will take place this afternoon, May 23, at 2:30 o'clock, from McCall Bros' Funeral Home. Interment will be made at Ross Bay Cemetery.

Radical Break on Stock and Bond Quotations Causes Great Excitement

MADRID, May 22 (AP). — A radical break in stock and bond quotations on the Barcelona exchange caused great excitement on the Bourse this evening and calm was restored only after Jose Pelaez, the presiding officer, had addressed the Bourse.

Pelaez insisted the country was fundamentally sound and the Bourse closed quietly, although certain stocks sagged.

Numerous stock and bond issues at Barcelona dropped 20 to 30 points and recovered in various degrees. Norte Railroads sagged 20 points, but regained the loss and Alicante Railroad fell 30, part of which was recovered.

Some banking circles indicated that the losses were caused by public nervousness over the Government plans for a petroleum agreement with Russia. Pelaez and other financiers characterized this attitude as "sheer hysteria" and unfounded on economic logic.

MINE RESERVES MAY BE TREBLED

Encouraging Reports Given at Annual Meeting of Pioneer Gold at Vancouver

VANCOUVER, May 22. — When the new 2,000-foot shaft is completed, if the vein is shown to continue as good as at the 1,000-foot level, the present reserves would be trebled, Col. Victor Spencer, president, told shareholders at the annual general meeting of Pioneer Gold Mines of B.C., Ltd., yesterday.

Col. Spencer was re-elected president and Alfred E. Bull vice-president and secretary-treasurer. David Sloan was reappointed managing director. The following directors were re-elected: Mrs. Helen A. Wallbridge, Brig.-Gen. J. Duff Stuart, Dr. R. B. Boucher, Dr. Francis J. Nicholson and Dr. Andrew R. Thomson, all of Vancouver. At a meeting of the board following the shareholders' meeting all officers were re-elected.

In his remarks to the shareholders Col. Spencer said the company had a very successful year. The development during the twelve months enables the company to now take its place among the regular gold producers of Canada.

DESCRIBES RESERVES

Reviewing the ore reserves of the mine, the president stated that during the past year a gold reserve of $4,500,000 has been shown to exist between the 500 and 1,000-foot levels on a 1,600-foot section only of the property. When the new 2,000-foot shaft is completed, if the vein is shown to continue as good as at the 1,000-foot level the present reserves would be trebled.

As there is ore on all faces of the lower levels, both east and west, at the present time, it is but reasonable to anticipate that on the two miles the property extends the ore body will eventually be shown to be of much greater length than the present 1,600 feet. It is the general opinion of geologists that the ore goes to great depth.

Mr. Bull, vice-president, announced that the directors had completed arrangements for the purchase from the Coronation Consolidated Mining Co., Ltd., the "Countless" mineral claim lying immediately west of Pioneer.

BIG MERGER PLANNED

LONDON, May 22 (AP).—Six of Lancashire's most important manufacturers of textile machinery, whose total capital exceeds $36,500,000, are considering a merger. An accountant has prepared the terms for the proposed amalgamation for submission to the stockholders.

Jose Jurado Plays Round of Golf in Prince's Clothes

Prince of Wales Lends Argentine Professional Outfit—South American Lauds H.R.H. and Royal Family for Hospitality

By H. J. J. SARGINT
(Copyright, 1931, by the North American Newspaper Alliance)

SOUTHPORT, Lancashire, Eng., May 22.—Jose Jurado, little golf professional from the Argentine, feels that he has been honored above most men: for he has worn plus fours borrowed from the Prince of Wales himself, and has had a hot bath in Windsor Castle.

So it was entirely natural that he should burst out with, "the Prince is a grand fellow," when he told of the hospitality shown him by the British heir when they were shipmates recently between South America and England, and after their arrival in this country.

Jurado, a slip of a man with coal black, reserved eyes and mahogany face, has come to England to play in the British open championship. He has been playing constantly in preparation, and the other day he and the Prince of Wales were partners against Lord Edmam and Mario Churlo, who also is an Argentine professional.

"The Prince is the keenest golfer I know," said Jurado. "He snatches every opportunity to improve his game, and I have found him a remarkably apt pupil. If the Prince had sufficient leisure he would become one of the world's leading players.

PRACTISES FAITHFULLY

"Even at sea, when we were on the Arlanza, the Prince practised faithfully, spending three or four hours each day driving balls into a net. During the voyage he perfected his drive. He now handles his clubs in a smooth effortless manner. And he can beat his brother, the Duke of York, formerly the champion of the Royal Family.

"The Prince was overjoyed when he and I defeated the Duke of York and Jimmie Braid, the British pro, by 2 and 1 at Walton Heath. The Prince jumped a bunker, danced a jig on the eighteenth green, and sang an Argentine song."

At the end of this match, Jurado said with pride, he had tea with the Prince, the Duke and Duchess of York and Prince George.

"But the red-letter day of my life," he exclaimed, "was when I visited Windsor Castle. I never imagined such magnificence and beauty existed. Why, there are 640 rooms in the castle. Can you imagine it? I am one of the few people ever conducted through Windsor Castle by the Prince of Wales. He spoke continuously in Spanish. His mastery of my language is remarkable, considering the short time he has studied it.

INTRODUCED TO QUEEN

"The Prince introduced me to his mother. The queen was very gracious. She asked if I found the climate of England agreeable, and if the conditions here affected my game.

"It is obvious how proud she is of her eldest son. She smiled fondly at his frequent jokes, and remarked dryly that she had heard more about the golf the Prince had played in South America than about his other occupations. If it were not for what she read in the newspapers she might conclude that he did nothing but play golf, the queen said.

"When the queen bade me goodbye the Prince suggested a round of golf. I pointed out that I was not suitably dressed for golf. And it was raining hard.

"'Oh, that's nothing,' said the Prince. 'Come along with me.'

"He took me to his suite, opened a wardrobe, and told me to help myself. I chose a pair of dark blue plus-fours, grey golf socks, brown shoes, a thick woolen pullover and a blue beret.

"Out into the wind and rain we went, and the Prince was not content until we had had two hours' practice on the King's private course. We returned to the castle drenched to the skin.

"I had a hot bath in the castle. Then I had tea with the Prince and the little Princess Elizabeth.

"'Uncle David,' was the name she used when she addressed the Prince. They are great friends. She is a lovely little girl."

"GRADE A—PASTEURIZED"

Strange that the treatment which makes our milk wholesome should be the product of the experiments for improving the flavor of wine and beer! For that is how it started.

In 1870 Louis Pasteur was studying the causes for certain forms of life that gave bad flavors to wine and beers. The bad flavors, which he called "diseases," were of course simply deterioration. He found that by heating the products to a temperature of 158 to 176 degrees F., and holding the fluids at this temperature for a period of time? the "disease germs" were destroyed and the quality of the wines and beers improved.

So, the heating of liquors to preserve them, to which the term Pasteurization was applied, came to be generally practiced in Europe, and in Denmark the process was applied to milk when experiments showed that the destruction of the bacteria improved the flavor of the butter.

Soon it was found that Pasteurization of skimmed milk before this was given to calves prevented tuberculosis among cattle. And before long the process came to be recognized as a necessary safeguard and was universally adopted as a measure of sanitation.

SCHOOL PUPILS IN BIG DISPLAY

Mass Concert by Over 1,000 Students of Victoria Public Schools Soon

On June 10, at 2 o'clock, at the Royal Athletic Park, more than 1,000 pupils, representing the public schools of Victoria, will parade before Premier S. F. Tolmie in an Open Day celebration. The affair is in the hands of the central committee of the 388th (Victoria Schools) Cadet Battalion, and will be taken part in by 600 physical education cadets, 250 Girl Guides, fifty Victoria High School gymnasts, 150 dancers, and fifty naval cadets.

The Fireman's Band, under the direction of Al Prescott, and the band of the 5th Brigade (C.F.A.), conducted by Charles Raine, with the band of the 388th Battalion, under G. H. E. Greene, will play the March Past and other selections during the performance.

About twelve folk dances will be witnessed, each to be given in native costume.

G. Waddington, supervisor of music for the Victoria schools, will conduct the whole gathering in singing "O Canada" and "God Save the King."

The display is expected to be one of the most colorful and picturesque of its nature ever presented in the city. Invitations have been sent to clubs and associations of Victoria to attend, and the central committee takes this opportunity of inviting the citizens of Victoria to be present.

DEATH CLAIMS ABRAHAM JOYCE

Pioneer of Vancouver's Early Days Passes in His Ninetieth Year at Port Coquitlam

PORT COQUITLAM, May 22 (CP).— Death today removed another from the ranks of pioneers of Vancouver's early days in the person of Abraham Joyce, who was in his ninetieth year. He is survived by his wife, .

Mr. Joyce emigrated from England in the early eighties and, after three years spent farming in Ontario, he came West as contractor to the C.P.R., obtaining a contract for laying of steel between Port Moody and Vancouver. He also cleared the Granville Street right-of-way from what is now the Hotel Vancouver to False Creek.

He later took up land in Collingwood, where his name survives in Joyce Road, building the first school in that district and serving for a number of years as school trustee. He came to Port Coquitlam just prior to the boom period and has lived here ever since.

Funeral services will be conducted on Saturday, and interment will be in Fraser Cemetery.

Lime Is Worth Much to Your Body

Nearly every day you are reading about lime and of its uses in the body. As students, all lime meant to us was that it was needed to help form the bones and the teeth, that equal parts of lime water and linseed oil, called carron oil, was useful in burns, and that chlorinated lime (often called chloride of lime) was used as a disinfectant in sick rooms, cesspools and so forth.

But today we find lime or calcium used in the body for many purposes, owing to the fact that lime is necessary to all the tissues of the body besides the bones and teeth. It is needed in the formation of certain juices, ferments, or secretions of the glands, the thyroid gland in the neck, as an example, and it is needed for growth and repair of the tissues. You can thus understand why calcium or lime is now being used more than in former times, as research men have first tried out its effects upon animals, and later, on men.

One of the outstanding uses is thickening or helping the blood to clot more rapidly in "bleeders" or others where the "stickiness" of the blood is less than it should be. Thus it helps to stop bleeding from the lungs or stomach.

It has been found that lime increases muscular action and this led to its use in weak hearts. Lime strengthens the beat and slows down a rapid heart.

This same action on the muscles was found also to stimulate the muscle coats of the stomach thus enabling the stomach to mix its juice with the food better, and also to empty its contents into the small intestines in a shorter time.

A headache just above the temples which is most severe at waking and seems to get better during the day, is thought to be due to the lack of "stickiness" in the blood, and lime has been found to greatly help these cases.

For certain skin conditions—hives, boils and offensive perspiration—lime has proven of great help.

The form in which lime is mostly used now is the lactate, as chloride is difficult to take and has to be well diluted in syrup. For heart cases, however, the chloride is generally used.

It is certainly interesting to see that this common everyday substance is worth so much to that body of yours.

Submarine Inspected

NEW LONDON, Conn., May 22 (AP).—Sir George Hubert Wilkins today inspected the submarine Nautilus, aboard which he plans an Arctic expedition, in preparation for her departure, tentatively set for Saturday. The refitted submarine came here recently under command of Captain Sloan Danenhower, to carry out submergence tests.
